

How to Request IRS Verification of Nonfiling Letter

As part of the verification process for financial aid, the Department of Education requires that people who do not file taxes submit an IRS letter of nonfiling status to the University. A nonfiling letter will be necessary for all parties in the custodial household (i.e. student, parent 1, parent 2, spouse) that did not file taxes.

What is an IRS Verification of Nonfiling Letter?

An IRS Verification of Nonfiling Letter (VNF) will provide proof from the IRS that there is no record of a filed tax form (1040, 1040A, or 1040EZ) for the year you have requested. A VNF does not provide proof that you were not required to file, only that you did not file. For any academic year in which your FAFSA is selected for verification and you reported "Will not file," you will need to request a VNF for the prior-prior year (eg. for 2021-2022, request a VNF for 2019).

Non Tax filers can request an IRS Verification of nonfiling, free of charge from the IRS in one of three ways:

Online

Mailing in a form

Make an appointment at your local taxpayer assistance center.

Please note: if you filed a Puerto Rican or Foreign Income Tax return you must submit appropriate nonfiling documentation from a relevant tax authority.

Online Request

1. "Get Your Tax Record"
2. Click "Get Transcript ONLINE" (If at any point, you cannot validate your identity – for example you cannot provide financial verification information or you lack access to a mobile phone – you will need to use the Get Transcript by MAIL option, see below for instructions).
3. Enter the non filer's Social Security Number (you can use your ITIN or EIN), e-mail address, filing status, account numbers for loan or credit card associated with your name, and mobile phone associate with your name. This information will be used to verify your identity with the IRS.
4. Click "Continue".
5. Select "Verification of Nonfiling Letter" for the correct tax year (i.e. 2017 for 2019-20).

How to fix address matching problems when ordering the Nonfiling letter online

When entering the information into the IRS address matching system, note the following:

1. The address entered must match the address already on file with the IRS exactly.
2. The address on file is typically the address on your most recent tax return.
3. Spelling out the word “street” rather than using the abbreviation “st.” can sometimes be enough to cause an error.
4. Addresses on the IRS system are auto-corrected through a United States Postal Services software and may not match what you put on your tax return.

We have the following suggestions if you run into problems:

1. Have your most recent tax return in front of you to enter the address carefully as it is on your return.
2. If you have entered your address as it appears on your return and it does not work, try using the standardized version of your address.
3. To get a standardized version of your address go to the USPS website and search by Zip Code. Enter the address and click find.
4. If you still have problems, the IRS.gov Website help desk can be reached at 1-800-829-1040 (Monday through Friday) 7 am – 7 pm (Eastern Standard Time).

If you are unable to obtain a 2019 Verification of Nonfiling Letter (VNF) from the IRS or other tax authorities, you must submit a signed statement, attesting that you attempted to obtain the VNF from the IRS or other tax authorities and were unable to obtain the required documentation.
