WHAT IS ACADEMIC AFFAIRS

Supervised by the Provost and Vice President for Academic Affairs (VPAA), this area of the University is concerned with academic requirements, academic quality, academic integrity, curriculum, grade reporting, permanent academic records, academic advising, faculty recruitment and development, library services, and the evaluation of instruction. Since the educational experience is the focal point of a student's relationship with Louisiana Christian University (LCU), the integrity of both the University and student is maintained by basic academic regulations. The LCU Catalog serves as the primary resource on academic regulations. Contained in the Catalog are complete descriptions of requirements for admissions, plans of study, class attendance policies, the grading system, tuition expenses, courses of instruction, and definitive statements concerning academic processes. Students may request clarification of these policies from their academic advisors should a need arise.

LCU CONNECTION

The Louisiana Christian University Connection course (CC 100) provides an ongoing process of orientation to facilitate the adjustment of incoming freshmen. The course provides services to maximize student success in the total university experience and activities are designed to enhance the growth and development of students during their freshman year. Sessions held prior to registration focus on information concerning systems serving students in the academic realm, academic advising, and registration process.

CC 100: Part one of the First-Year Experience courses at Louisiana Christian University. Topics covered will help orient the incoming student to life at LCU, connect them to all aspects of campus life, promote academic success while at LCU, and support career goals afterward. Required in the first fall semester for all First Time in College (FTIC) students under the age of 23. A FTIC is defined as a student attending any institution for the first time at the undergraduate level since completing high school and includes students who were dual enrolled in college during high school, regardless of whether an associate's degree was earned at the time of high school graduation. Non-traditional students (23 years of age or older) and transfer students who have earned sophomore status and have successfully completed and are transferring at least 26 credit hours from an accredited college or university are exempt from enrolling in CC 100 and CC 102. For transfer students who have not earned sophomore status, a 1-credit college orientation course may be transferred from another college to satisfy this requirement and CC 102. A transfer student is defined as a student who attended another college or institution for one or more semesters after his or her high school graduation (not including the summer semester immediately following high school graduation) and before his or her enrollment at Louisiana Christian University.

EMAIL COMMUNICATION REQUIREMENT

The official way the University communicates with students is through the assigned LCU email address. Students are responsible for knowing and using their school assigned email address. Contact the Office of Information Technology for set up at 318-487-7181.

ACADEMIC ADVISING

Each student is assigned to a faculty member or a special academic counselor who assists in planning his program of study. Once a major has been declared, advising is coordinated by the dean, chair, or coordinator in the major field. Academic advising is a cornerstone of student success. Without proper advising, students may fail to accomplish expected student learning outcomes for their chosen degree. Proper academic advising enhances student retention rates and student success.

Students deserve the best academic advising available to them for their chosen major. To that end, only teaching faculty within the student's chosen discipline or a special academic advisor assigned through the Provost/VPAA Office will provide academic advising. If a student has not declared a major, a faculty member designated as an advisor for undeclared majors will advise the student.

Faculty are expected to adhere to the following guidelines:

- i. Only teaching faculty within the department of the student's chosen major or a special academic advisor assigned through the Provost/VPAA Office will provide academic advising.
- ii. Administrative assistants, secretaries, and athletic coaches are not authorized to provide academic advising.
- iii. Administrators are to refer students needing academic advising to an appropriate teaching faculty member. Students who intend to pursue a pre-professional program should see the appropriate pre-professional program advisor.

DROPPING AND ADDING COURSES

During the late registration period, students may alter their schedule by adding or dropping courses. Students' schedules become official at the end of this period, and no additional changes are allowed.

From the end of the late registration period through the 14th week of the semester, students may withdraw from classes. See the section on Grading System for an explanation of the grades that may be received upon withdrawing from a course. Consult the official calendar for the deadlines for withdrawing with these grades. Deadlines for the summer terms are also noted in the calendar.

After the 14th week of the semester, a student may not withdraw from a course except with the permission of the Provost/VPAA. Such permission is only granted in extraordinary circumstances.

A student may not use the drop process to avoid an "F" that is given for violations of the Code of Academic Integrity, serious misconduct as specified in departmental documents, or an FA (Failure due to absences).

All changes in a student's schedule must be processed through the Registrar's Office to be official. The necessary forms are available from the Registrar's Office.

Graduate students should refer to The Graduate Catalog for details and timeline for adding and dropping graduate courses.

CLASS ATTENDANCE

Louisiana Christian University acknowledges the relation between attendance, student retention, and student achievement and recognizes that attendance is both an obligation and a privilege. Participation should be consistent and punctual. To obtain credit for the course, a student must attend at least 75% of the class sessions.

An absence is defined as nonattendance for any reason, including illness, family emergency, or university-related activity. Cancelled class sessions are not included. When a student registers late, or adds a course after the first class session, the missed class sessions will be counted as absences. Two separate occurrences of tardiness will count as one absence.

The student is expected to notify the instructor if a class session will be missed and is responsible for any information, activities, evaluations, or assignments missed because of the absence. The make-up policy will be determined by the instructor and will be clearly defined in the course syllabus. The instructor may use attendance in calculating course grades, and this will be defined and documented in the course syllabus.

Instructors are required to monitor attendance, keep accurate records, and complete required reports regarding attendance. The names of students who miss three consecutive class sessions will be reported to the Registrar's office.

Instructors will complete the Absence and Deficiency Report each semester, reporting any grades of D or F, and excessive absences for each course taught. For classes meeting three times a week, four (4) absences are considered excessive. For classes meeting twice a week, three (3) absences are considered excessive. For classes meeting once a week, one (1) absence is considered excessive.

Attendance Policy for Online Courses

Because of the nature of the remote/online curriculum and the participatory structure of course work, students must engage and participate in weekly activities. For all classes, students are encouraged to log in regularly (at least 3 days a week) to check the announcements and calendar, also to complete all assignments for the week. (The due date for assignments may not be extended for purposes of achieving attendance/participation.)

An absence for a remote/online class is defined as not submitting at least one graded assignment that is due within a course week. For online classes, a course week starts on Monday at 12:01 am and ends the following Sunday at 11:59 pm CST.

Students are expected to:

- post to discussion forums as assigned (graded assignment),
- respond to other students' posts as assigned (graded assignment), and
- to participate and engage with course material(s): watching course videos, submitting assignments, and completing all weekly assignments (graded assignments).

Pre-registered students are required to interact in some manner within the first five calendar days of the semester. Students who register late are required to interact in some manner within five days of registering for the course.

Failure of Online Courses

7-week courses: Students may miss 2 weeks in a 7-online course. If a student misses three weeks (3 absences), excused or unexcused, instructors will record a ~~will result in~~ grade of 'F,' and the student will no longer have access to the course.

15-week courses: Student may miss 4 weeks in a 15-week online course. If a student misses five weeks (5 absences), excused or unexcused, instructors will record a grade of 'F' and the student will no longer have access to restriction of access to the course.

See Distance Education Manual for more details on attendance in online courses. See The Graduate Catalog/Graduate Catalog for details on attendance in graduate courses.

ACADEMIC STANDING SCHOLASTIC PROBATION AND SUSPENSION

Students who are permitted to enroll in Louisiana Christian University are considered to be in good academic standing. Freshmen who fail to earn and maintain a 1.5 cumulative grade point average, sophomores who fail to maintain a 1.75 cumulative grade point average, and juniors and seniors who fail to maintain a 2.0 cumulative grade point average will be placed on probation. Grade point average and classification will be based on GPA hours attempted. This policy applies to all full-time and part-time students.

Students on probation will be required to participate in the Academic Counseling Program. (See full description of the program below.) In order to be removed from probation, students must earn the required cumulative GPA for their classification. Students who fail to earn the required cumulative GPA may continue on probation so long as they demonstrate minimum academic progress of earning a minimum 2.0 GPA during a semester. Those who fail to earn the required cumulative GPA and also fail to earn a minimum 2.0 GPA during the probationary semester will be placed on academic suspension and will be ineligible to return to LCU for one semester and a summer. Students on academic suspension will be suspended either the Spring and Summer semesters or the Summer and Fall semesters. Please contact the Registrar's Office for more information.

THE ACADEMIC COUNSELING PROGRAM

The Academic Counseling Program, a program designed to help students achieve academic success, requires students to meet with their faculty advisors at least once each month throughout the semester and to meet with the Director of Academic Success and Retention at the beginning of each semester as a condition to their continued enrollment. Students admitted to the Academic Counseling Program will be permitted to continue in the program so long as they meet all the requirements for their probationary or provisional status. Students who meet the requirements for their probationary or provisional status but fail to participate in the required counseling program must petition the Admissions and Retention Committee in order to be allowed to continue at LCU.

CREDIT EARNED WHILE ON SUSPENSION

Credit earned while on suspension from any college or university (including LCU) will not be accepted toward a degree.

APPEAL OF ACADEMIC INELIGIBILITY TO RETURN

Students who believe that special circumstances warrant an exception to any academic policy that classifies them as ineligible to return to Louisiana Christian University may file a written appeal with the Admissions and Retention Committee. The appeal should be in the form of a letter submitted to the committee through the Director of Academic Success and Retention explaining the situation and providing documentation of the extenuating circumstances. The appeal must be filed at least seven calendar days prior to the beginning of the semester or summer term in which the student wishes to enroll. The Admissions and Retention Committee makes final decisions on such appeals.

AUDIO RECORDING OF CLASSROOM LECTURES

Faculty and students are expected to enhance learning environment by addressing all learning styles as appropriate. Thus, the audio recording of classroom lectures is both permitted and encouraged as one method of improving student achievement.

ACADEMIC INTEGRITY POLICY AND PROCEDURE

Because the primary purpose of Louisiana Christian University is to be a community of learning and free inquiry and because the University seeks to create an environment that encourages the development of moral and ethical values, the University places the highest value on academic integrity and regards any act of academic dishonesty as a serious offense.

Academic dishonesty violates the bonds of intellectual, spiritual, and moral principles foundational to all knowledge. Furthermore, academic dishonesty may defraud those who eventually will depend upon the integrity of learning and scholarship. Academic integrity, therefore, must be the concern and the responsibility of all members of the university community, students, faculty, staff, and administrators.

I. RESPONSIBILITIES

The responsibility for academic integrity must be a mutual effort of all those who participate in the academic process. Louisiana Christian University recognizes the special roles of students and faculty in establishing and maintaining a climate conducive to academic honesty.

A. Student Responsibilities

1. Students must understand the concept of academic integrity and its counterpart, academic dishonesty.

2. Students registering for academic credit must sign a statement agreeing to read and abide by the policies (including those related to academic integrity) in the current edition of the Louisiana Christian University Student Handbook.
3. Students should recognize that the regulations governing academic integrity exist for the protection of the honest and that dishonesty in an academic setting must not be condoned. Students are strongly encouraged to alert instructors if they become aware of academic dishonesty occurring in a course.
4. Students are responsible for their own work. Any assignment turned in by a student is assumed to be the work of the student whose name appears on the assignment.
5. Students are ultimately responsible for understanding instructions for any assignment, both written and oral. Students should seek clarification from the instructor when necessary.
6. Students should familiarize themselves with the proper use of citations and quotations to avoid accidentally passing off someone else's work as their own.
7. Any student who threatens or coerces another student or instructor regarding the reporting of information germane to an academic integrity violation will face disciplinary action, with expulsion being the recommended punishment.

B. Faculty Responsibilities

1. Instructors must explain all assignments as thoroughly as is reasonable and should address any extraordinary limitations on outside assistance.
2. Instructors should take reasonable precautions in giving tests to ensure that violations do not occur. The fact that an instructor did not take a specific precaution does not, however, constitute an excuse for any form of academic dishonesty.
3. If collaboration or assistance (e.g., student-prepared notes) on a particular assignment or exam is authorized, the instructor must be clear about his/her expectations on this and subsequent assignments/exams.
4. Instructors should avoid circumstances that create unfair opportunities for students, such as giving the same exam to multiple sections of the same course.
5. Instructors must be willing to investigate possible violations of academic dishonesty.
6. Instructors must file a Code of Academic Integrity Violation Report for all instances of academic dishonesty.
7. Instructors must seek to be fair in their dealings with students, particularly regarding cases of academic dishonesty, and must realize that no student can be convicted on suspicion alone.
8. Instructors may ask students to sign a statement of academic honesty prior to turning in an exam or any other assignment.

II. VIOLATIONS OF ACADEMIC INTEGRITY

Academic integrity violations (Academic Dishonesty) encompass any acts that comprise or subvert the integrity of the educational or research process. These offenses include, but are not limited to:

- A. Plagiarism. Plagiarism refers to the representation of another person's words or ideas as one's own in any academic exercise. Examples include, but are not limited to:
  1. Copying information word-for-word from a source, without identification of the quoted material and/or proper acknowledgment/citation.
  2. Paraphrasing (i.e., put into one's own words) a source's text without providing proper acknowledgment/citation. This violation occurs when the ideas or arguments of another are paraphrased in such a way as to lead the reader to believe that these ideas originated with the writer.
  3. Presenting as one's own any work which was prepared in whole or in part by someone other than one's self. This includes using unauthorized assistance in preparing one's work and acquiring written work from an outside source. Outside sources include other persons, commercial organizations, electronic sources, and other sources.

4. Reproducing in full or in part (without proper citation) another person's work in any form, such as a graphic element, a musical phrase, a computer program, a proof, experimental results, laboratory reports, or data of any type. This includes turning in work of another student as one's own work.
- B. Misrepresentation. Examples include but are not limited to the following:
1. Arranging for another student to substitute for one's self during an examination session or in the completion of course work.
  2. Taking credit for work not done, such as taking credit for a team assignment without participating or contributing to the extent expected.
  3. "Double dipping" (multiple uses of the same work) or presentation of the same or substantially the same written work (or portion thereof) as part of the course requirement for more than one project or course without the prior written permission of the instructor(s) involved. If a student wishes to use another assignment as a base for additional credit, faculty should give the student the opportunity to submit a written explanation of the unique educational benefits of the new project.
- C. Fabrication. Fabrication refers to the falsifying or misusing data in any academic exercise. Examples include, but are not limited to:
1. Falsifying data collected while conducting an experiment for a course or doing other research.
  2. Making up or presenting falsified data in papers, manuscripts, books, lab reports, or other documents submitted for publication or as a course or degree requirements.
  3. Making up a source as a citation in an assignment.
  4. Citing a source one did not use.
  5. Falsifying material cited.
  6. Attempting to deceive the instructor by altering and resubmitting for additional credit assignments, tests, quizzes, or exams that have been graded and returned.
- D. Cheating and Stealing. Cheating refers to the using or attempting to use, unauthorized assistance in any academic exercise. It includes the stealing or unauthorized acquisition of a test or test answers, or impeding the fair process of examination in any way. Examples of this violation include, but are not limited to:
1. Looking on or copying from someone else's exam, paper, or assignment.
  2. Unauthorized use or possession of notes, supplemental notes, or comparable aids (in any format) during an examination, quiz, or other assignment or evaluation. This includes possessing an electronic device that contains unauthorized information for a test or assignment (e.g., programming one's computer, PDA, or calculator inappropriately).
  3. Using unauthorized materials (e.g., notes, textbooks, calculators, computers) in the preparation of a test or assignment.
  4. Communicating or attempting to communicate answers, hints, or suggestions during an examination.
  5. Sharing or collaborating (without instructor's permission) in the preparation and presentation of reports, laboratory reports, or take-home assignments such as copying or giving aid, or otherwise failing to abide by the University's or instructor's rules governing the exercise or examination.
  6. Using another person's answers for an assignment.
  7. Soliciting, obtaining, possessing, or providing to another person an examination or portions of an exam, prior or subsequent to the administration of the exam, without the authorization of the instructor. Unless the instructor has given permission, students may not provide test questions to other students in any form - oral, written, or electronic.

8. Stealing, or attempting to steal, an examination or answer key from an instructor or proctor.
- E. Impeding fair and equal access to the educational and research process. Examples of this violation include but are not limited to:
  1. Infringing upon the rights of other students to fair and equal access to any library materials and comparable or related academic resources by any means, including maliciously removing, tampering with, or damaging any other resources.
  2. Attempting to prevent access by other users to the University's computer system and its resources, to degrade the system's performance, or to copy or destroy files or programs without consent.
  3. Intentionally disrupting the educational process in any manner.
- F. Misrepresenting or misusing one's relationship with the University. Examples of this violation include, but are not limited to:
  1. Falsifying, misusing, omitting, or tampering with information (in any form, including written, oral, or electronic) such as test scores, transcripts, letters of recommendation, or statements of purpose, to gain initial or continued access to the University's programs or facilities.
  2. Altering, changing, forging, or misusing academic records or any official University form regarding one's self or others.
  3. Causing any false information to be presented at an academic proceeding or intentionally destroying evidence important to an academic proceeding.
  4. Failing to be fully cooperative and truthful if one has direct knowledge of an alleged violation of academic integrity.
  5. Reporting an academic integrity violation known to be false.
  6. Offering bribes (e.g., monetary remuneration, gifts, or favors) to any University representative in exchange for special consideration or waiver of procedures.
- G. Facilitation. Facilitation refers to knowingly or intentionally assisting any person in the commission of an academic integrity violation. Students who engage in facilitation are also subject to discipline for integrity violations. Examples of this violation include, but are not limited to:
  1. Giving another student one's assignment or paper (or a portion thereof) to copy.
  2. Giving another student answers to a test or assignment.
  3. Letting another student copy one's answers during an examination.
- H. Use of Artificial Intelligence (AI): Examples of this violation include but are not limited to:
  1. Using Artificial Intelligence (AI) programs, chatbots, or other forms to craft content for coursework and submitting it as one's own.
  2. Using any form of summary or paraphrasing software to modify material the student did not create and then representing it as one's own.
  3. Using any aid that compromises the originality or authenticity of one's coursework.

III. PROCEDURES FOR ADDRESSING VIOLATIONS

- A. Summary: The Code of Academic Integrity is enforced at two levels: the classroom level and the administrative level. All alleged violations are first handled at the classroom level by the instructor involved. Classroom-level enforcement involves a student conference and the filing of a Code of Academic Integrity Violation Report which details classroom penalties imposed by the instructor. Instructors who witness acts of academic dishonesty by students who are not enrolled in their courses may submit violation reports; however, they may not impose a classroom penalty. Some alleged violations may be subject to review at the administrative level. This will result in an Academic Integrity Hearing and possible institutional sanctions.

Time constraints indicated throughout this code may be altered for offenses which are committed at a point in the academic calendar which makes a specified schedule infeasible or for offenses committed within the context of an online course, especially if the student lives out of town.

- B. Student Conference: If an instructor is reasonably certain that a student has committed an act of academic dishonesty, he or she must meet with the student(s) involved and discuss the following: (1) the specific type of violation, (2) the reasons for suspecting the violation, and (3) the importance of academic integrity. The instructor should thoroughly document the meeting in preparation for filing the Code of Academic Integrity Violation Report and for possible subsequent hearings. For students in distance learning classes or for violations discovered at the end of an academic term, instructors may hold the conference remotely if the student is unable to meet in person. If for any reason the student is not available for a conference before the end of the semester, the instructor may assign a course grade of "I" pending resolution of the charge. (Documentation for the "I" grade must be provided to the Office of the Registrar.)
- A. Violation Report: In order to identify repeat offenders and validate any penalties that the instructor may choose to impose, the instructor must complete a Code of Academic Integrity Violation Report for each student involved and obtain the student's signature. Additionally, the instructor should thoroughly describe and document the violation in writing. For students in distance learning classes, instructors may email a copy of the violation report to the student's official Louisiana Christian University email address if the student is unable to come in person to sign the form. Within 5 business days, the student must sign the form and return it. If the student fails to respond after 5 business days, the student will forfeit the opportunity to request a hearing board and the academic integrity process will go forward.

Within 5 business days of discovering the offense, or as soon as practical within the academic calendar, the instructor should make a copy of the Violation Report and send the original to the Dean of Students. The Dean of Students will forward copies to the student(s) being accused and the Provost and Vice President for Academic Affairs. The original report will become part of the student's confidential academic disciplinary file maintained only in the Office of the Provost/VPAA and will serve to put the student officially "on warning" concerning the nature and consequences of academic dishonesty.

The classroom penalty for the offense is at the discretion of the instructor. If the student is an underclassman, the work is a minor part of the course, or if premeditation appears not to exist, it is recommended that the student be given an F (or zero if grading is numerical) on the work in question. If the dishonest behavior required advanced planning, considerable time and/or effort, or advanced cooperation, it is recommended that the student be given an F in the course. Other potential classroom penalties may include, but are not limited to, the following: written or oral reprimand, required additional work, revised work, re-examination, a reduced grade on the assignment, and/or a reduced grade in the course. Depending on the severity of the violation, the instructor may also recommend that an Academic Dishonesty Hearing Board be convened to consider the appropriateness of an institutional sanction. (See III D.2. below)

- B. Optional Academic Dishonesty Hearing: If this is a first offense, an Academic Dishonesty Hearing is optional. All requests for a hearing must be made to the Dean of Students in writing, and the Hearing Board will be convened according to the procedural guidelines below.

The purpose of an Academic Dishonesty Hearing is to allow the accused student to make a case for his or her innocence and/or to determine whether an institutional sanction should be imposed in addition to the classroom penalty. The Academic Dishonesty Hearing Board will not consider the appropriateness of the classroom penalty.

1. Student-Initiated: To request an Academic Dishonesty Hearing, the accused student must first confer with the instructor, the Department Coordinator and where applicable, the Chair of the Department, and the Dean of the School within which the course is taught. If after these conferences the student questions the validity of the academic dishonesty charge, s/he may request that a Hearing Board be impaneled.
  2. Faculty-Initiated: If the instructor feels that the severity of the violation warrants an institutional sanction (e.g., suspension, or expulsion), he or she may indicate that on the Violation Report.
  3. Administrator-Initiated: After reviewing the Violation Report, the Dean of Students and/or the Provost/VPAA may request additional information from the instructor and/or ~~require~~ review the student's judicial disciplinary file from the Dean of Student's Office. After reviewing the disciplinary file, either administrator may request an Academic Dishonesty Hearing based on the severity of the present offense or an apparent pattern of behavior as evidenced by the current offense in combination with existing disciplinary records.
- C. Mandatory Hearing. For a second offense and any subsequent academic integrity violations, an Academic Dishonesty Hearing Board must be convened to consider the validity of the charge and possible institutional sanctions.

IV. PENALTIES

- A. Classroom penalties will be determined by the instructor and described in the Violation Report.
  1. A student who receives an "F" in a course as a classroom penalty for academic dishonesty may not withdraw from the course at any time during the semester.
  2. A student who receives an "F" in a course as a result of a classroom penalty for academic dishonesty (e.g., as a result of reduced grade on an assignment or a reduced grade in the course) may withdraw from the course with a "WF" at any time during the semester. Such a course may not be dropped with a "W" or a "WP" at any time during the semester.
- B. Institutional sanctions may be imposed by an Academic Dishonesty Hearing Board.
- C. Students who receive a course grade of "F" or "WF" as a result of academic dishonesty or who receive an institutional sanction for academic dishonesty are not eligible to graduate with academic honors.
- D. Any student who receives a Violation of Academic Integrity Report will not be eligible for annual honors (e.g. Dean's List) during the academic year in which the violation occurred.
- E. A student who loses annual honors or graduation honors due to an academic integrity violation may appeal to the Provost/Vice President of Academic Affairs for a restitution of honors. Any such appeal must be in writing to the VPAA within 72 hours of receiving notice that an Academic Integrity Violation Report has been filed or that an institutional sanction has been imposed. The decision of the Provost/Vice President of Academic Affairs will be final.

V. PROCEDURAL GUIDELINES FOR ACADEMIC DISHONESTY HEARING

- A. A Hearing Board is comprised of two voting faculty members, one non-voting faculty member designated as the Hearing Officer, and one voting student representative. The Dean of Students shall select the Hearing Board members from the Academic Integrity Committee. If the Dean of Students is absent from campus when a case arises, the Provost and Vice President for Academic Affairs will designate a member of the ~~Administrative Council~~ Academic Leadership Team to perform the necessary functions.
- B. The Hearing Board may request access to all of the student's disciplinary files, including the academic disciplinary file from the Provost/Vice President for Academic Affairs' (VPAA) Office and the judicial disciplinary file from the Dean of Student's Office. The Hearing Board may request additional information from any instructor(s) who filed a Violation Report on the student and any other individuals who may have pertinent information regarding the student.

- C. The Hearing Officer shall notify the student of his or her right or obligation to appear before the Board at least 3 business days in advance of the hearing. The student may waive the right to the three-day notice to expedite the hearing. Students enrolled in distance learning classes may opt to provide testimony remotely and/or in writing.
  - D. The accused student may be accompanied by a person of his or her choice who may not be an attorney. This person will not participate actively in the hearing unless requested to do so by the Hearing Board.
  - E. The Academic Dishonesty hearing is not a court of law, and formal rules of evidence are not necessary.
  - F. Digital recordings or written notes of the hearing will be maintained in the Office of the Provost/VPAA.
  - G. The accused student has a right to explain to the Hearing Board the facts related to the incident(s), why he or she is not guilty, and/or why an institutional sanction is not warranted. The accused student may request witnesses to appear or to prepare signed written statements. The accused will not be allowed in the hearing during questioning of a witness. The Hearing Board has discretion to include or exclude testimony as it deems fair and appropriate under the circumstances.
  - H. Only Hearing Board members may be present during the Board's deliberations. Hearing Board deliberations will not be recorded.
  - I. The Hearing Board will choose from among the following options:
    - 1. There is insufficient evidence to support the charge. The Violation Report will be removed from his or her academic disciplinary file and the classroom penalty will be revoked.
    - 2. There is sufficient evidence to support the charge, and the classroom penalty is upheld. The student receives no institutional sanction.
    - 3. There is sufficient evidence to support the charge, and the classroom penalty is upheld. Based on the severity of the violation or a pattern of behavior, an institutional sanction of is imposed as follows:
      - a. First Violation Report – Classroom penalty is upheld. * For severe violations, see below for possible sanctions.
      - b. Second Violation Report – Suspension for one academic semester. * For severe violations, see below for possible sanctions.
      - c. Third Violation Report – See below for possible sanctions.
- * Penalties for severe violations include suspension, suspension without option to return, withholding diploma/transcript for specified time, and/or expulsion. Severe violations include (but are not limited to) such offenses as a student paying some else (or being paid) to take an exam or online class; colluding with other students to actively cheat during an exam; or taking pictures of an exam and sharing those pictures with other students in the class.*
- J. The final decision of the Hearing Board will be a majority vote. In case there is a tie, the Hearing Officer will vote.
  - K. The Hearing Officer will submit a written copy of the Board's finding to the Dean of Students and to the Provost and Vice President of Academic Affairs, who will notify the student within three business days of the decision.

VI. APPEAL OF HEARING BOARD ACTION

A student who receives an institutional sanction of suspension or expulsion by an Academic Dishonesty Hearing Board may appeal the decision to the Provost/Vice President of Academic Affairs (VPAA). Any other actions by that Board may be appealed only on the basis of a procedural error, new evidence, an unsupported conclusion, or a disproportionate sanction. Any such appeal must be in writing to the VPAA within 3 business days of the Hearing Board's notification to the student. The decision of the VPAA will be final.

ACADEMIC APPEAL PROCEDURE

STUDENT ORGANIZATIONS

Students have opportunities for involvement in campus life through a variety of activities and organizations. The Student Government Association, the Union Board, and the Baptist Collegiate Ministry serve as major campus-wide organizations and represent large segments of the student body. These groups do not have narrowly defined membership criteria and are open to all students at LCU. They offer a wide array of activities for students and provide student input into the development of programs, policies, and student activities. In addition to these major groups, a diverse group of service clubs and professional societies offer a wide range of options for involvement.

STUDENT GOVERNMENT ASSOCIATION

The Student Government Association (SGA) represents student views and concerns to the faculty and the administration. Governmental leaders participate in policymaking, the judiciary system, institutional planning, and implementation of University programs. The Louisiana Christian University SGA is a member of the American Student Government Association (ASGA).

All social, academic, and honorary organizations are governed through the SGA under the supervision of the President's Table. Chaired by the Vice President of the SGA, the President's Table consists of all organizational presidents and serves as a coordinating body for organizational activities. The group meets monthly to plan campus-wide organizational activities and to provide input into policies governing organizations.

The SGA elects executive officers and representatives in a campus-wide election each spring semester. Freshmen representatives and commuter representatives are elected in a special election held each fall. Any full-time student with a minimum grade point average of 2.00 is eligible for election to the board. Certain offices may require more stringent and specific criteria. Students should consult the SGA Constitution for detailed information. For more information or a copy of the SGA Constitution, call the SGA Office or the Director of Student Activities.

UNION BOARD

The Union Board sponsors social, educational, cultural, and recreational activities which are funded through the Union Board fee paid by all students. The Board organizes campus-wide activities, including concerts, fine arts events, coffeehouses, movies, and numerous special events, including Gala Christmas and Cochon de Lait.

Union Board consists of two executive officers, selected by the Union Board staff in the fall semester, and a varying number of members. The Board is supervised by the Director of International Student Affairs and Student Engagement. Any full-time student with a minimum grade point average of 2.0 is eligible to apply for Union Board in the spring semester. Certain offices may require specific experience or expertise. ## RELIGIOUS LIFE AND SPIRITUAL ENRICHMENT

PURPOSE

Through the program of spiritual enrichment, LCU encourages worship of and submission to Jesus as Lord. Students are introduced to the essentials of the Christian gospel. The program demonstrates the relevance of the message of the Bible for people today and seeks to inspire devotion to the teachings of the Scripture. The program also seeks to stir the passion of the campus family for changing the world by carrying the gospel to the ends of the earth. The University seeks to accomplish these goals through corporate worship that involves the entire campus family including students, faculty, and staff and through a variety of Christian organizations that offer opportunities for Christian education, fellowship, and service.

LCU utilizes some assemblies to celebrate achievement, to build a sense of community throughout the campus family, and to foster intellectual development. The University also offers cultural enrichment programs and presentations that provide students a life-long appreciation for the visual and performing arts and also provides important information on issues of current interest.

SPIRITUAL AND CULTURAL ENRICHMENT POLICIES

LOUISIANA CHRISTIAN UNIVERSITY CHAPEL POLICY

Revision Effective: 7/12/2021

LCU exists to aid in the transformational process of a student academically, spiritually, and physically. To aid in the spiritual development of a student, the University places a great deal of time and resources into the development of its chapel programming. Chapel services will be each Tuesday at 11:00 a.m., along with the possibility of special chapel services on Thursday and/or Wednesday at 11:00 a.m. each semester in Guinn Auditorium.

All full-time students must earn at least 11 chapel credits each academic semester. Each semester students are required to attend specific chapel services. For the fall semester, required chapels include the following: The first chapel (Freshman Convocation), Founders Day, Values and Ethics Chapel, and the last chapel of the semester. Mandatory Required chapels for the spring semester include the following: The first chapel, God in the Workplace Chapel, Missions Chapel, and Honors Convocation.

Students who fail to attend the required chapel services and/or the required number of chapel services will be placed on probation. During the following semester, Students on probation must meet chapel attendance requirements while making up for absences below the required attendance number of 11 from the previous semester. Failure to adhere to their probationary requirement will result in a one semester suspension from the University.

Students will also earn 5 cultural credits each academic semester. Numerous opportunities for cultural credits are available. Student Support Services provides a list of spiritual/cultural credits throughout the semester. In addition to this list, students can earn cultural credits through C3- Christ, Church, and Culture, the Values and Ethics Conference (Fall Semester), and the annual God in the Workplace Conference (Spring Semester). Cultural credits cannot be substituted for Chapel credits.

Earphones, cellular devices, & tablets/computers are not allowed during Chapel. Students are to not wear caps or other head gear during Chapel services. Also, students who arrive after 11:00 a.m. will not receive credit for the chapel service. Chapel services consist of a variety of worship experiences featuring speakers, musicians, missionaries, and other people. Services generally conclude by 11:45 a.m. In the rare event that the service runs late, class times will be adjusted accordingly. Students should mark this time on their schedules when registering for classes. Work schedules on and off campus need to be scheduled in a manner that does not conflict with chapel attendance.

Video or audio-taping of chapel programs by members of the audience are not permitted because it may be a violation of copyright law as well as an infringement on the property rights of the speakers.

*Attendance will be recorded through the Spotter App. Each student is responsible for downloading the app and checking in during chapel. Students having difficulty checking in through Spotter must check in with a Student Support Services staff member in the lobby of Guinn before leaving the program. Students must stay for the entire chapel service to receive chapel credit. Students who check in on Spotter but who do not actually attend the service, i.e., hanging out in the hallway, foyer, parking lot, downstairs, or bathrooms, will be referred to the Dean of Students for disciplinary action.

Spotter will also be used to document attendance at cultural events at the conclusion of the event. Students must stay for the entire event to receive credit for attendance.

Please see Student Code of Conduct for expectations of conduct during chapel and cultural events. LCU has a zero-tolerance policy for conduct issues during these events. Students who repeatedly display disrespectful conduct in events may be suspended or expelled from the University.

STUDENT SUCCESS SERVICES

The Louisiana Christian University Student Success Center (SSC) is a comprehensive one-stop shop for academic support services on campus. The goal of the SSC is to increase retention by providing students with access to free tutoring in core courses, thereby fostering the independent, critical thinking skills they need to succeed in the university and beyond. Located in the Norton Library, the SSC offers a range of academic assistance in the form of individual tutoring, study groups, and other support services for LCU's student body. Students meet with peer tutors who have excelled in the course they tutor and who have been trained to facilitate discussion on course content. All of the programs and initiatives offered in the Center are free for LCU students.

For Assistance in Writing

The first stop for writing help is the Writing Center, located in the Student Success Center. Trained writing assistants work one-on-one with students on every aspect of the writing process. Students typically need to make appointments, but walk-ins are welcome if an appointment is available.

Free help on writing assignments, includes the following:

- Analytical essays
- Argumentative essays
- Response papers
- Research papers in all majors
- Book reports and reviews
- Film and drama reviews
- Lab reports
- Critiques
- Proposals, business reports, letters, and memos
- Service-learning writing projects

Students receive help with all phases of the writing process, from brainstorming ideas to synthesizing sources, tightening arguments, and revising for clarity and style. Writing assistants do not edit or correct students' papers; instead, they work with students to help them strengthen their critical thinking skills and improve their own writing.

For Assistance in Math

Tutors in math are located in the Math Center in the Student Success Center. Peer tutors meet one-on-one with students who need help in math, from the fundamentals of algebra through calculus to differential equations and linear algebra. Appointments are best, but not necessary as long as students arrive when a tutor is available.

LIBRARY SERVICES

The Richard W. Norton Memorial Library provides technologically-enriched resources, services, and spaces to foster a community of collaborative teaching, learning, and research. In seeking to fulfill its mission, the library strives to be a key partner in students' academic pursuits, collaborating to achieve success together.

Resources

The library provides resources in multiple formats to meet the research needs of students, faculty, and staff across the disciplines. The library's physical resources number approximately 100,000 volume equivalents, some of which are organized into focal collections, such as juvenile materials, the divinity collection, the Hyatt collection, and special collections and archives. Electronic resources, which are accessible 24/7, include over 270,000 e-books, nearly 77,000 e-journals, and 180 databases from such companies as EBSCO, ProQuest, Oxford, and Gale. The library is a selective depository for both state and federal government documents. Materials are discoverable via the library's online catalog, LCCat, and EBSCO's discovery service, both of which are available on the library's website at Richard W. Norton Memorial Library – Louisiana Christian University \(lcuniversity.edu\)).

Access

Through authentication services, current students, faculty, and staff have access to the library's online resources on or off campus. Off-campus access is facilitated via a proxy, which requires that users simply provide their current campus login credentials before being directed to online resources. During the regular semester, the library is open 70 hours per week, providing access to the library's physical materials and study spaces. Exceptions to regular hours are posted on the library's website and social media accounts. Entrance doors are locked 15 minutes prior to the posted closing time.

Course Reserves

Each semester, faculty may choose to place reading materials on reserve for equitable access and use. Course reserves are searchable in the library's online catalog, LCCat, and are typically available for student use in three-hour increments, although faculty may choose other loan periods at their discretion. Materials are available at the library's circulation desk. Course reserves are facilitated through the library's Circulation Services department.

Special Collections and Archives

The library retains and organizes materials related to the history of Louisiana Christian University. Some of the more extensive holdings include course catalogs, yearbooks, and University newspapers. Other collections include faculty-authored works, alumni-authored works, and materials related to the history of Baptists in Louisiana. Special collections include the Robert MacGimsey Collection and the Joseph Willis Institute Collection. Access to these materials is restricted and must be made by appointment.

Borrowing

In addition to traditional borrowing services for the library's physical resources, the library participates in several reciprocal borrowing programs. Within the state, authorized users may visit and borrow materials from other participating academic institutions. Nationally, authorized users may borrow materials from other institutions participating in the ACL Reciprocal Borrowing program. For information on borrowing limits, renewals, fees, etc., see the library's website at <http://lacollege.libguides.com/borrowing>.

Interlibrary Loan

The library's membership in various organizations (OCLC, LOUIS, ACL) provides researchers the opportunity to obtain books, journal articles, and other resource materials which are not available through the library's collections. Interlibrary loan allows the library to supplement its collections and enhance research opportunities. Interlibrary loan services may be used to request needed materials, typically at no cost and within a matter of days, depending upon the resource.

Research Assistance

Qualified library faculty and staff use research and course guides, custom tutorial videos, an FAQ, on-site workshops, and classroom instruction to connect students with targeted resources and strategies for conducting research and completing assignments. In addition, research help is available via a variety of communication channels, including e-mail, phone, chat, and text. Research consultations may also be scheduled with a librarian to receive tailored personal research assistance.

Spaces

A variety of study spaces in the library accommodate the learning needs and preferences of students. Located on the first floor, "the commons" provides a comfortable, collaborative space ideal for large group project meetings and is equipped with several mobile whiteboards. Five group study rooms, which can be reserved in advance, offer more privacy for smaller group work. The computer lab offers 20 thin client computer workstations, which are loaded with the Microsoft Office Suite (Access, Excel, PowerPoint, Publisher, Word, etc.), Acrobat Reader, Internet browsers (Chrome, Firefox, IE), and media players (Windows Media and QuickTime). Wi-Fi is available throughout the building. Individual study carrels are available in the library book stacks. The library's coffee bar, Overdue Brew, provides complementary hot beverages for library visitors.

The Student Wellness Center is located on the 2nd floor of the Louisiana Athletic Center. No fee is charged for a visit to the nurse. The nurse is also available to administer allergy injections to students who are enrolled, but this requires a physician's order with specific instructions regarding schedule and dosing. The student is responsible for providing the allergy antigen. The nurse can assist with keeping track of blood pressure or glucose readings and can administer B12 or other cyclically administered injections with written orders and serum/medication provided by the student's family or staff's physician.

The nurse in Student Wellness Services consults with the University Physician for further treatment when needed. The University Physician holds a clinic and sees students who are ill in Health Services each Wednesday afternoon during the spring and fall semesters. An appointment is required to see the doctor. There is no fee charged for a visit to the doctor; however, if the doctor orders lab work, x-rays, or prescription medications, students are responsible for the costs.

Please visit our website for the current university refund policies: Business office – Louisiana Christian University (lcuniversity.edu)

DISTRIBUTION OF REFUND CHECKS

Refunds resulting from drop/adds or resignations will not be made until after an audit of fees has been performed. ## STUDENT RECORD SERVICES

Louisiana Christian University preserves and maintains permanent institutional records relating to each student. Information contained in these records can be made available to authorized persons or institutions as a service to students in accordance with the following policies.

STUDENT RIGHT TO PRIVACY/FERPA

FERPA is a Federal law that is administered by the Family Policy Compliance Office (Office) in the U.S. Department of Education (Department). 20 U.S.C. § 1232g; 34 CFR Part 99. FERPA applies to educational agencies and institutions (e.g., schools) that receive funding under any program administered by the Department. The Family Rights and Privacy Act does not allow higher education institutions to discriminate disclosure of information to third parties, including parents, regardless of age. LCU does not discriminate against students with regard to age. If a student is appropriately admitted to LCU, all University policies and procedures apply. All enrolled students fall under all FERPA and HIPA laws and guidelines regardless of age. When a student reaches 18 years of age or attends a postsecondary institution, he or she becomes an "eligible student," and all rights under FERPA transfer from the parent to the student. The term "education records" is defined as those records that contain information directly related to a student and which are maintained by an educational agency or institution or by a party acting for the agency or institution.

Louisiana Christian University will disclose information from a student's educational records only with the written consent of the student except in certain legally permissible situations, i.e., to University officials who have a legitimate educational interest in the records, to certain government or other public officials, and to parents of an eligible student who claim the student as a dependent for income tax purposes. However, information designated by LCU for directory purposes, or the results of any disciplinary proceeding conducted by the University alleging a sex offense of the accused may be released without the student's consent. A student may grant the University the right to release confidential information, such as grades, academic progress reports, class attendance records, financial aid, disciplinary actions, financial account information to parent(s)/guardian(s)/ spouse by completing and signing the Student Consent to Release Confidential Information Form. To ensure that the identity of the person who is making the request is the student, the student must show his/her LC student ID, and the form must be submitted in person to the Office of the Registrar, Alexandria Hall, Room 145 and/or Office of Student Support Services, Hixon Student Center, Room 214. For distance education students, the online form can be submitted through the student's assigned University email with a scanned copy of his/her LCU student ID. The form can be downloaded from the Registrar's website.

DIRECTORY INFORMATION

Louisiana Christian University designates the following items as Directory Information: student name, address, telephone number, email address, date and place of birth, major field of study, participation in officially recognized activities and sports, weight and height of members of athletic teams, dates of attendance, degrees and awards/honors received, full or part-time enrollment status, most recent previous school attended, and photographs. The University may disclose any of those items without prior written consent, unless the student completes and submits to the Records Office the Request to Prevent Disclosure of Directory Information Form within the first two weeks of classes each semester. The form can be downloaded from the Registrar's website.

PERMANENT RECORDS

Academic records are maintained by the Provost and Vice President for Academic Affairs and are held in the Registrar's office. They constitute the student's permanent record and contain only information relevant to academic performance. These records are available only to authorized persons. Academic Integrity Violations are also housed in the Office of the Provost/VPAA. Disciplinary records contain information relating to student violations of University policy and are kept by the Dean of Students. They are maintained separately from academic records and are available only to authorized persons. For further information regarding disciplinary records, see Student Handbook, Student Disciplinary Policies and Procedures.

ACCESS TO RECORDS

Currently enrolled students are free to examine copies of their academic and disciplinary records maintained by the University. Any currently enrolled student who desires to review his or her record may make a written request to the University custodian of the record. The custodian will provide a copy of the record to the student within 45 days.

STUDENT RIGHT TO CHALLENGE RECORDS

Any student who desires to challenge the accuracy or completeness of a written University record will follow these procedures.

1. The student will submit to the custodian of the record a written statement setting forth the specific accuracy or incompleteness of the record. The statement or challenge will be filed as part of the record pertaining to the student.
2. If further action is desired, the student will confer with the custodian of the record concerning the matter and attempt to resolve the matter satisfactorily. Any agreed settlement will be written and signed by the student and custodian and made a part of the record.
3. If the challenge is not settled by the student and custodian, the student will have the right to appeal to the Committee for Student Accountability by submitting a copy of the challenge and the record to the Committee. After a hearing, the Committee will determine the validity of the challenge. The decision of the Committee will be reduced to writing and made a part of the record.

The above procedures will not be employed to challenge the validity of a grade or any other decision given by a University professor or administrator. Appeals of grades must be in accordance with the Academic Appeal Procedure. Appeals of disciplinary decisions must be made in accordance with the student disciplinary process.

PURPOSE

The mission of the Office of Residence Life is to effectively manage on-campus housing, to uphold campus policies and procedures, and to provide a quality atmosphere that encourages personal, spiritual, and academic growth, for the purpose of aiding students in their transition into adulthood.

OFFICES AND STAFF

The Residence Life Office is a unit of Student Support Services and under the general supervision of the Director of Residence Life. The Residence Life Office is located in the Student Support Services Suite on the top level of the Hixson Student Center and can be reached by calling (318)487-7154 or by emailing Reslife@lcuniversity.edu.

Each Residence Hall is directly supervised by a Residence Director (RD) or Apartment Manager living on the premises. Student Resident Assistants (RAs) are the first point of contact for students in campus housing and supervise approximately twenty residents each.

RESIDENCE HALLS

- Tudor Hall (Men) TU
- Cottingham Hall (Women) CH
- Ware Street Apartments (Men's honors apartments) WSA
- College Drive Apartments (Women's honors apartments) CDA
- English Village (Men) EV
- Church Hall (Men) CH

RESIDENCE HALL AMENITIES

MAIN DESK

Main desks are located in Cottingham Hall, English Village, and Tudor Hall in a central area of the dorm. A Residence Life member will be readily available at the main desk to provide information or provide student assistance from 6:00 p.m. to 10:00 p.m. nightly except for Wednesdays and Sundays, unless there is a coinciding university mandatory event. The Resident Assistant on duty will welcome students into the dorm, provide information for students, and oversee open house hours.

Church Hall, College Drive Apartments, and Ware Street Apartments do not have a main desk area. Staff contact information will be posted throughout the building should a student need a Residence Life staff member.

LAUNDRY

Each Residence Hall is equipped with laundry services and vending machines. Students are requested to show consideration for other residents by the prompt removal of clothes from washers and dryers. Clothes left in the laundry room for more than 48 hours will be removed and donated. Monetary losses or mechanical problems with laundry machines should be reported to an RA or reported directly by scanning the QR code on the machine. Louisiana Christian University is not responsible for the loss, theft, or damage of clothing in the residence hall laundry rooms.

HOUSING POLICIES AND PROCEDURES

ELIGIBILITY FOR CAMPUS HOUSING

To qualify to live in campus housing, an undergraduate student must be a full-time student and enrolled in at least twelve (12) credit hours, and a graduate student must be a full-time student and enrolled in at least six (6) credit hours.

A student who is not registered as a full-time student as defined above and has extenuating circumstances may appeal for an exception to the Vice President for Student Life. The Vice President for Student Life will make the final decision on the student's appeal for an exception.

FIRST TIME IN COLLEGE STUDENT HOUSING

All First Time in College (FTIC) female students under the age of 21 who apply for campus housing are required to live in Cottingham during their first year at LCU, and all First Time in College (FTIC) male students under the age of 21 who apply for campus housing are required to live in Church Hall or Tudor Hall during their first year. A FTIC is defined as a student attending any institution for the first time at the undergraduate level since completing high school and includes students who were dual enrolled in college during high school and who may have completed an associate degree at the time of high school graduation.

HONORS STUDENT HOUSING

Returning LCU students and transfer students who have reached sophomore status with a minimum GPA of 2.25 and have no disciplinary record are eligible to apply for Honors Housing in College Drive Apartments (CDA), English Village (EV), and Ware Street Apartments (WSA). Students may pick up an application from the Student Support Services office to seek admission into Honors Housing. Honors Housing is awarded on a first-come, first-served basis.

RESERVING A ROOM

All returning students will be required to pay a one-hundred-dollar ($100) deposit to secure a room assignment. The deposit will serve as an "intent to return" to Residence Life at LCU and will count towards fall housing expenses. During advising, students are expected to do the following:

- Log on to portal
- Click on "Campus Life" tab
- Click on "Online Housing Application"
- Complete the application form
- Pay a $100 deposit

When a student completes the form and pays the deposit, the Director of Residence Life will receive notification of payment. Once the Director of Residence Life receives evidence of your payment online and verifies enrollment, a room will be assigned to you. No exceptions will be made. If students fail to pay the deposit, students will not be guaranteed a room in the fall.

SEMESTER ROOM CHARGES

Room rent is based on the semester schedule and does not include holidays.

PRIVATE ROOM CHARGES

When space permits, students may fill out the necessary form at the Residence Life Office to reside in a private room. Private rooms cannot be guaranteed.

ROOM CHANGES

Room change requests must be processed and approved by the Director of Residence Life and agreed upon by all parties involved. Room changes are processed during the first two weeks of each semester. Once room assignments are finalized, additional room changes will be made at the discretion of the Director of Residence Life. The resident will be responsible for additional room charges that result from a room change if the cost of room rental is more than the original fees assessed.

Upon approval of a room change, a resident must check out of the original room and return the key to the RA. Failure to check out properly upon a room change will result in a fine of $25. The resident will be given 48 hours to remove all belongings from the originally assigned room once the resident has been issued the key to the new room. If possessions remain in the original room after 48 hours, the resident will be fined a minimum of $25 for failure to comply with policies and procedures and items will be donated.

ROOM CONSOLIDATION

If a student is left without a roommate for any reason within the first 2 weeks of any semester, the student may be required to consolidate rooms with another student who does not have a roommate. Consolidation means that the student will either have to select a new roommate or will be moved to another room with a roommate. Students will be given the option to choose their own roommate and decide who will move. The Residence Director is available to help with consolidation and will provide names of persons who need roommates. If a student fails to make his/her own arrangements, the University will reassign the student to another room or assign the student a new roommate. After 2 weeks of classes, students who are left without a roommate are exempt from consolidation unless unusual circumstances warrant consolidation.

ON-CAMPUS RESIDENCY REQUIREMENT

All unmarried full-time students (students taking 12 or more hours) under the age of 21 are required to live in campus housing unless they have been approved as a commuter student residing with parents or legal guardians within a fifty-mile radius of Louisiana Christian University. At the time of acceptance, new students must state their intention to live on campus or with parents. Each student must verify policy compliance with the Director of Residence Life prior to the completion of registration.

Students found in violation of this policy will be billed for room and board for the semester.

Students found in violation of the on-campus residency requirement and who are also in violation of the Code of Student Conduct will be subject to discipline as outlined in the Student Handbook. The Code of Student Conduct applies to student conduct both on and off campus and remains in effect for all students until they graduate or officially withdraw from the University, even when classes are not in session.

COMMUTER STUDENTS

A commuter student is defined as a student who is a legal dependent of a parent or legal guardian with whom he/she has current physical residence within a 50-mile radius of Louisiana Christian University.

In order to process the request to live off campus, LCU must verify residency of the person(s) where the student will be living locally. Verification documents include the most recent tax filings from the person who lives locally. The only information that LCU ResLife requires is proof of primary address. Sensitive tax information may be redacted, and the file sent to:

Louisiana Christian University
The Director of Residence Life
1140 College Drive Box 586
Pineville, LA 71359

Upon receipt of this document, the tax documents will be securely filed, and the request will be considered.

Students that claim a local dwelling exemption yet fail to complete the verification process will result in the student being billed for the cost of the room and board.

OFF-CAMPUS RESIDENCE ELIGIBILITY

Students who meet one of the eligibility requirements listed below may apply to the Director of Residence Life for an Exemption for Off-Campus Living. Request for Exemption for Off-Campus Living Forms are available in the Residence Life Office and online (www.lcuniversity.edu). A student must fill out and submit the Exemption Form no later than August 1 and meet one of the following criteria:

- Enrolled for less than 12 hours during a fall or spring semester and will not add additional hours of study to his/her schedule before the final date of registration.
- Has completed six semesters of residence hall living at Louisiana Christian University.
- Is at least 21 years of age by the day of the semester.
- Lives locally within a fifty-mile radius of campus with parents, grandparents, or legal guardian provided their primary address is within the Pineville area for tax purposes.
- Married and/or has legal guardianship of a minor by custody.

These are the only exceptions that will be considered. Requests that do not meet the above criteria will not be approved.

If the applying student does not meet the requirements below, the Director of Residence Life will send a statement of denial to the student. The statement includes the process of appeal which the student may go through if the student feels like his/her case was misrepresented. The responsibility for hearing the student cases and rendering appeal decisions are at the discretion of the Vice President for Student Life.

If a student does not meet one of the eligibility requirements and is denied off-campus living, the student will be required to live on campus. If the student defies the policy, does not reside on campus, and takes a residence off-campus, the student will be billed for room and board.

Students found in violation of the on-campus residency requirement and who are also in violation of the Code of Student Conduct will be subject to discipline as outlined in the Student Handbook. The Code of Student Conduct applies to student conduct both on and off campus and remains in effect for all students until they graduate or officially withdraw from the University, even when classes are not in session.

GRADUATE STUDENT HOUSING

Residence Halls are generally intended for traditional student use. However, at the discretion of the Director of Residence Life graduate students will be permitted to live on campus, but they must agree to abide by the Code of Student Conduct at all times.

RESIDENCE HALL OPENING AND CLOSING DATES FOR THE 2023-2024 ACADEMIC YEAR ARE LOCATED ON THE RESIDENCE LIFE AND STUDENT ACTIVITY CALENDAR

RESIDENCE HALL PROCESS FOR CHECK IN

Residence Halls will open and close as published on the Residence Life and Student Activity University Calendar unless otherwise posted. Both FRESHMEN AND UPPER CLASSMEN WILL BE GIVEN A SPECIFIC TIME SLOT FOR MOVE-IN. The Residence Life staff will conduct the check-in procedure when students arrive. All students are required to provide the following:

- Health insurance card
- Emergency contact information
- Cell phone number for the resident
- License plate number of the vehicle the student will drive on campus
- Proof of meningitis vaccination on file with the Louisiana Christian University Health Services Office.

Students are responsible for notifying Residential Life when this information changes. Students will not be permitted to check in to the Residence Hall without all the above.

The Residence Life staff will complete a room inventory form before the resident moves any belongings into the room. After receiving the room key, an RA will show the student to his/her room and complete the room inventory form with the student. This form is used to record any existing damages in the room (blinds, carpet, furniture, etc.) Residents will sign to verify the information is correct before he/she moves in. After the form is completed, the student will be allowed to move belongings into the room. This same form will be used to check students out of the dorm upon leaving the University. The purpose of this form is to ensure that students are not charged for damage that she/he did not cause. Incidental wear and damage that results from normal use is a matter of routine maintenance and not the responsibility of the student.

HOUSING AND HOLIDAY BREAKS

Residence halls remain open for brief breaks during the semester. During these times, students may remain in their rooms. The residence halls will close for longer breaks such as Thanksgiving, Christmas, and Easter. During these times, students are not permitted access to the buildings. Before the dorms close for these holidays, residents will be required to properly check out with the Residence Life staff and turn in their door keys. Residents may leave personal belongings in their rooms during these breaks. All perishable foods and trash must be emptied upon leaving for a holiday break.

HOLIDAY HOUSING AND SPECIAL ACCOMMODATIONS

Students who need housing accommodations during these breaks will be required to apply for Holiday Housing. Holiday housing privileges will be granted at the discretion of the Director of Residence Life and must be approved no later than one week prior to the posted dorm closing. Students can anticipate a charge of $20 per night to stay in the Residence Hall during the holiday.

Athletes and international students who need to stay additional days past the end of the semester or who need to return early before residence halls officially open must request that their coach or the Director of International Student Affairs send a written request to the Office of Residential Life at least two weeks before the additional days are needed. The Residence Life Office has no obligation to make provisions for such students if requests are not submitted on time. Special accommodations for international students will be limited to three days prior to the start and end of the fall and spring semesters. All international students and athletes will be charged the same rate as holiday guests if they fail to meet the deadline to apply for holiday housing.

Residence halls close for maintenance and housekeeping at the end of the spring semester. During these times, students are not permitted access to the buildings and must remove all personal belongings from their rooms.

SUMMER HOUSING

Students who register for classes or stay in the area for summer employment can apply for summer housing at the rate of $85 per week. However, students must be registered for classes in the upcoming fall session to be approved for summer housing on-campus. Summer residents must pay two weeks rent in advance prior to moving into the assigned room. Payments must be made on a weekly basis thereafter. Failure to pay rent in a timely manner may result in removal from the residence, denial of further housing privileges, and denial of permission to register/attend classes until the balance is paid.

Living on campus during the holidays and summer terms is a privilege. All students who are using summer housing must adhere to the Louisiana Christian University Code of Conduct. Students who are found in violation of the Student Code of Conduct and/or housing policies will have their residence privileges revoked during these times.

RESIDENCE HALL CHECK-OUT PROCEDURES

The check-out process is the same for every break that requires students to check out. Students will first need to sign up for a check-out time with their RA. This sign-up sheet can be found on the RA's door. Check-out times must be picked 24 hours in advance of the check-out time that students select to allow the RA adequate time to prepare. All belongings of the student should be removed from the room prior to the RA's inspection as well as all trash disposed of properly and the room swept. Upon termination of room occupancy, the room will be inspected by the Resident Assistant who will note any condition(s) that are different from check-in. The damages will be assessed, and the student will be billed for the cost of the repairs. It is the responsibility of the student to respect facilities of the University. After the room has been inspected, students will sign their inventory sheets and return their keys. Incidental wear and damage that results from normal use is a matter of routine maintenance and not the responsibility of the student.

After holidays or breaks, students are not permitted to return to campus prior to the date announced in the University Calendar. Students are to vacate their rooms and check out properly with the housing staff according to the closing date in the University Calendar. Approvals for special accommodations must be made in advance and through the Director of Residence Life if a student needs to arrive early or stay late. See HOLIDAY HOUSING AND SPECIAL ACCOMMODATIONS. Charges are assessed on a per day basis for any days the buildings are not officially open. Additional fines may be assessed if the resident does not vacate his/her room by the designated time.

FINES FOR FAILURE TO FOLLOW CHECK-OUT PROCEDURES

Fines apply to holiday, summer, and semester check-outs. Students will not be permitted to register, attend classes, or get a transcript until all fines are paid. Students will be fined for the following:

- Moving out or leaving without checking out with the Resident Assistant . . . . . $50.

This fine applies to students who left the residence with their belongings and failed to meet with their Resident Assistant to review and sign the check-out paperwork.

- Being late for personal check-out time scheduled with the Resident Assistant . . . . . $25.
This fine applies to those who remained in the Residence Halls and were late for Personal Check-out time.
- Remaining 1 to 29 minutes past the posted ResHall closing . . . . . $50.
- Remaining 30 minutes or more after the posted ResHall closing . . . . . $175.

Students who have not checked out of their rooms 30 minutes after the posted Residence Hall closing time will have their belongings disposed of, and the fine will be added to their student account.

Students who leave personal property and/or trash in their rooms after check-out will be fined based on the number of materials that have to be removed by Residence Life staff.

Failing to remove all belongings and trash . . . . . $50 minimum/$500 maximum.

Louisiana Christian University is not responsible for any personal items left behind in the residence halls after check-out.

TERMINATION OF RESIDENCY

Any student who wishes to vacate a residence hall, must have their room inspected by an RA, and turn in their room key. Each individual who wishes to terminate occupancy must complete the above procedure with a staff member. Failure to check out properly will result in the forfeiture of the damage deposit, a $25 fine, key replacement cost, and charges for any damages to the room/residence hall. In addition, students will continue to be charged rental fees until they officially check out of the residence hall. Upon completion of the required paperwork and procedures, the student may be eligible to receive a pro-rated refund of pre-paid rental fees.

GENERAL REGULATIONS FOR CAMPUS HOUSING

MANDATORY RESIDENCE HALL MEETINGS

Mandatory hall meetings are called by the Director of Residence Life, Residence Directors, or Resident Assistants to inform students of pertinent matters. Every resident is required to attend these meetings. Disciplinary action will result and a fine of $25.00 per missed meeting will be assessed to residents who miss a mandatory meeting. Residents who know that they will be unable to attend a mandatory residence hall meeting due to work, school, athletic responsibilities are responsible for notifying the RD of their building and filling out a Meeting Exemption Form. The Meeting Exemption Form must be requested at least 48 hours in advance of the scheduled meeting. Approval of the exemption is at the discretion of The Director of Residence Life. If an exemption is granted, it is the responsibility of the resident to schedule time with the RA to obtain the information shared at the meeting. Failure to apply for an exemption, to follow-up with an RA, or to attend a meeting without an exemption will result in a $25 fine. Residents will be required to abide by all Residential Life policies and procedures shared in residence hall meetings, regardless of whether or not the resident attended the meeting in which rules were changed or added.

RESIDENCE HALL ACCESS, KEY AND CARD SECURITY, AND REPLACEMENTS

Room keys are issued only by the authorization of the Residence Director of each building. Each student will be issued only one key to his/her room. A student may not possess keys to any other student's room. Students are not to exchange keys, duplicate keys, or pass keys to subsequent occupants of the room. Violation of this regulation is considered a serious offense and disciplinary action will be taken. Unauthorized possession of a master key or any key for other than its designated purpose is also a serious offense and will result in disciplinary action.

Lost keys should be reported immediately to the Resident Assistant and/or Residence Director. Lost keys will be replaced at a cost of $25.00 per key so the lock can be replaced.

RESIDENCE HALL INSPECTION

Louisiana Christian University respects a student's right to privacy and guards against arbitrary and unnecessary intrusion. University personnel may enter a student's room to ascertain health and safety conditions, check the physical condition of the room, make repairs to facilities, perform custodial operations, and aid in emergency situations. Occupants are required to maintain their rooms in an orderly and hygienic manner. Residence hall staff will make weekly inspections of the rooms to ensure that adequate living standards are maintained. Students failing to maintain adequate standards of cleanliness may be billed for custodial services.

Residents do not have to be present for the room checks to be completed. The Residence Life staff has the right and responsibility to check in closets, microwaves, refrigerators, and under furniture without express consent. Violations reported during routine room checks will be dealt with according to the Louisiana Christian University Student Handbook. More serious violations will be assessed with consequences imposed by the Dean of Students.

The University reserves the right to enter and conduct a search of any room. Authorization for searches can be given by the President of the University, the Provost and Vice President for Academic Affairs, the Dean of Students, the Director of Residence Life, Vice President of Student Life or his/her designee. In situations where it is deemed that a delay to obtain authorization constitutes a danger to individuals or property or may result in the destruction or disposal of contraband, the room or vehicle can be entered and searched without authorization. Individuals may also be searched if, in the opinion of the University personnel, the person may be in violation of the Code of Conduct and may possess or hide evidence. Reasonable effort will be made to conduct the search in the presence of an occupant of the room, the person who registered the vehicle on campus, and a witness. Trained dogs will be used to assist in a search at the discretion of the Dean of Students Vice President of Student Life, or the Director of Residence Life. A search will be conducted by at least two University employees. A list of objects/items taken as the result of a search will be signed by all individuals involved in the search and witnesses.

COURTESY HOURS

Reasonable quiet is always expected in residence halls. In order for residence halls to best meet the needs of all students, all residents must be considerate of their neighbors' needs, including their need for quiet time. Courtesy hours will be observed in each residence hall nightly from 10:00 p.m. until 8:00 a.m. All students and their guests are expected to observe these hours and provide an atmosphere conducive to study.

Courtesy hours prohibit the following:

- Loud stereos and televisions in resident's rooms or lounge areas
- Speakers placed against walls adjoining a neighbor's room
- Loud conversations or laughter resident's rooms, lounge areas, or hallways
- Running anywhere in residence halls due to safety hazards, disruptions, and potential problems for others
- Slamming doors in any part of the dorm
- Yelling down the hall or any noise/behavior that infringes on the rights of others

Students who are disturbed by noise should notify the RA if they are unable to resolve the problem. The RA will act as a mediator and request residents and guests to comply with courtesy hours. If cooperation does not occur, the RA will submit an incident report to be reviewed by the Director of Residence Life as well as the Dean of Students who will determine the disciplinary actions that will take place. Disciplinary action may include, but is not limited to the following: community service, fines, possible removal from campus housing, and/or dismissal from the University.

ROOM VISITATION/OPEN HOUSE PRIVILEGES

Visitation in an on-campus room or apartment assigned for occupancy by members of the opposite sex is forbidden without the expressed permission of the Residence Director. Please be advised that this policy also applies to parents and siblings of residents. Open house privileges apply to all residence halls with the exception of Married Student Apartments.

Activity or behavior associated with such damage could result in danger for members of our community and is not acceptable. For damages in residence units where the individual(s) responsible cannot be identified, each of the residents of the unit/area must pay an equal share toward the cost of repairs. If repeated incidents or major damage in a residential unit occurs, and if the individual(s) responsible cannot be identified, social privileges of the occupants may be revoked until such time that the residents demonstrate a commitment to appropriate behavior and can give reasonable assurance that no further damage will occur. If the individual(s) responsible for damage can be identified, accountability will be assigned accordingly and will include restitution and a fine.

MAINTENANCE AND REPAIRS

Most missing person reports in the University environment result from students changing their routines without informing roommates and/or friends of the change.

Purpose

This policy applies to students who reside in campus housing and establishes University standards and procedures for notification of law enforcement, parents or guardians, and student-identified contacts when a student who resides in University housing is reported as missing or has been determined to be missing. This policy applies to the following definition of "missing persons" and is distinct from policies related to "welfare checks."

Missing Person

For the purposes of this policy, a student will be considered a "missing person" if a roommate, classmate, faculty member, friend, family member, or other campus person has not seen or heard from the person in a reasonable amount of time. In general, a reasonable amount of time is 24 hours but may vary with the time of day and information available regarding the missing person's daily schedule, habits, and reliability. Individuals will also be considered missing immediately if their absence has occurred under circumstances that are suspicious or cause concerns for their safety. Such circumstances could include, but not be limited to, a report or suspicion that the missing person may be the victim of foul play, has expressed suicidal thoughts, is drug dependent, is in a life-threatening situation, or has been with persons who may endanger the student.

Student Disclosures

1. The University will notify the Office of Safety and Security and the Dean of Students if a student is reported missing;
2. Students may identify a person to be contacted by the University not later than 24 hours after the time if that the student is determined to be missing in accordance with the official notification procedures;

Confidential Contacts

Prior to occupying university housing, students will be given the opportunity to designate an individual or individuals to be contacted by the University in the event that the student is determined to be missing. A designation will remain in effect until changed or revoked by the student. The emergency contact information will be treated as confidential. Only authorized campus officials and law enforcement officers in furtherance of a missing person investigation will have access to the confidential contact information, and it will not be disclosed to others.

Excessive noise by driver or occupants of a motor vehicle, excessive noise of vehicle, reckless operation of the vehicle, driving while intoxicated or under the influence of intoxicants, spinning tires on pavement or gravel, drag racing, operating vehicle with faulty lights or mufflers other than stock mufflers are all violations.
6. No person shall ride on running boards, fenders, or rear rack of motor vehicles.
7. Vehicles are not to be operated on sidewalks or lawns.
8. The operation of unlicensed vehicles on university property, or any device used for transportation, sport, or entertainment (excluding bicycles) is prohibited.
9. All vehicle accidents are to be reported to the Louisiana Christian University Department of Safety and Security. Accident vehicles are not to be moved until a security officer arrives unless they present a traffic hazard.
10. Students adjudicated as guilty of traffic offenses which occurred on campus and which involved alcohol or other intoxicants will be referred to the Office of the Dean of Students for appropriate action.
11. Bicycles are subject to the same traffic regulations as motor vehicles.

VIOLATIONS, FINES, AND DISCIPLINARY ACTION

The Louisiana Christian University Department of Safety and Security is responsible for the enforcement of traffic and parking violations on the campus. The operation of a vehicle on campus and parking on campus is a privilege granted by Louisiana Christian University. Serious and/or excessive traffic/parking violations will result in the loss of this privilege. The individual in whose name the vehicle is registered is responsible for all parking violations. The fact that a citation is not issued when a vehicle is illegally parked does not mean or imply that the regulations are no longer in effect. Penalties apply even though a ticket was not found on the automobile or other mode of transportation. The inability to find a legal parking space in convenient or specific locations is not justification for violations of the parking regulations. Violations of traffic and parking regulation will result in fines, disciplinary action, and possible suspension.

PENALTIES FOR LOUISIANA CHRISTIAN UNIVERSITY MOVING AND PARKING VIOLATIONS

Traffic and parking tickets are official documents of the University. Falsification of or allowing falsification of official documents will subject the person to university disciplinary action. Students who believe they have been ticketed in error should not move their vehicles and should contact the Louisiana Christian University Department of Safety and Security. (318) 305-6505

1. Citation number(s);
2. License plate number of vehicle(s) and permit number(s);
3. Student identification number;
4. Name, address, phone number, and signature of person requesting the appeal.

Appeal(s) will be delivered to the Dean of Students for review. The Dean's decision will be based solely on 1) if a procedural error occurred; or 2) if there are unsupported conclusions. If the Dean of Students determines that the appeal meets one of the aforementioned, the Dean (or Committee) will determine one of the following:

1. Dismiss the citation
2. Uphold the citation

The Dean will notify the student in writing of the decision. If an appeal is denied, the fine becomes due on the date the Dean notifies the appellant of the decision. The Dean's decision is final.

TOWING OF VEHICLES

Louisiana Christian University is private property and reserves the right to have unauthorized vehicles, abandoned vehicles, or vehicles operated in violation of Louisiana Christian University rules and regulations towed from the campus property at the owner's expense. Situations which may warrant towing of vehicles include, but are not limited to, the following: vehicle causing a safety hazard, obstructing traffic, blocking a fire hydrant, parking in a fire lane, parking in handicapped spaces, parking on curbs, parking in loading zones or abandoned vehicles.

Vehicles in persistent violation of traffic regulations are subject to towing.

DIFFERENCE BETWEEN SERVICE ANIMAL & EMOTIONAL SUPPORT ANIMAL

“Service Animal” will be used in accordance with the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) as amended.

Guide	Service Animals	Emotional Support Animal
Federal Mandate:	ADA	FHA
Emotional Support Coverage:	Excludes Emotional Support	Includes Emotional Support
Where can you take the animal?	All-Campus	Housing Only
Reason for animal:	Access	Reasonable Accommodation
Is Approval Necessary:	Automatically Allowed	Approval Needed
Type of Animal Allowed	Dogs	Dog or Cat

“Service Animal”: Any dog that is individually trained to do work or perform tasks for the benefit of an individual with a disability (there is a separate provision regarding miniature horses). The work or tasks performed by a Service Animal must be directly related to the resident student’s disability.

Examples of work or tasks include, but are not limited to:

Assisting individuals who are blind or have low vision with navigation and other tasks, alerting individuals who are deaf or hard of hearing to the presence of people or sounds, providing non-violent protection or rescue work, pulling a wheelchair, assisting an individual during a seizure, alerting individuals to the presence all allergens, retrieving items such as medicine or the telephone, providing physical support and assistance with balance and stability to individuals with mobility disabilities, and helping persons with psychiatric and neurological disabilities by preventing or interrupting impulsive or destructive behaviors. The crime deterrent effects of an animal’s presence and the provision of emotional support, well-being, comfort, or companionship do not constitute work or tasks for the purposes of this definition. (28 C.F.R. §36.302(c)).

Service Animals may travel freely with their Owner/partner throughout areas of the University, with the exception of areas which may pose a threat to health or safety or create an undue burden (see "Areas off Limits to Service Animals" below). They must be harnessed, leashed, or tethered, unless these devices interfere with the Service Animal's work or the individual's disability prevents using these devices. In that case, the individual must maintain control of the animal through voice, signal, or other effective controls. The animal cannot be left unattended on campus.

Note: The University may prohibit the use of Service Animals in certain locations for health and safety reasons (e.g., where the animals may be in danger, or where their use may compromise the integrity or research). Restricted areas may include, but are not limited to, the following areas: custodial closets, boiler rooms, facility equipment rooms, utility rooms, research laboratories, classrooms with research/ demonstration animals, areas where protective clothing is necessary, wood and metal shops, motor pools, rooms with heavy machinery and all other areas considered inaccessible to animals under Louisiana law. Service Animals are prohibited from kitchens and food-preparation areas, not including public dining areas (e.g., the Union).

“Emotional Support Animal” will be used in accordance with the Fair Housing Act (FHA) and will be considered synonymous with the following terms often used in referring to an Emotional Support Animal: Comfort Animal, Companion Animal, Emotional Support Animal, Support Animal, Therapy Animal, etc.

An Emotional Support Animal (cat or dog only) may reside in University Housing with its student owner/partner only after the student owner/partner has submitted required forms and has received written approval by LCU Associate VP of Enrichment and Engagement provided that its behavior and care does not create unreasonable disruptions for residents, employees, and other University community members. Disruptions, including noise levels, will be addressed by LCU Housing staff in the same manner as with all students. An Emotional Support Animal is not permitted in other areas of the University (e.g. dining facilities, libraries, academic buildings, athletic buildings and facilities, classroom, labs, individual center, etc.).

Pets and any dangerous, poisonous, unregistered, unlicensed, and/or illegal animals are not permitted.

There is a $500 per semester fee nonrefundable deposit for any qualifying residents to cover the cost of cleaning, sterilizing, and repairing of rooms.

“Pet”: A domesticated animal kept in the home for pleasure and companionship, rather than for the purpose of assisting persons with disabilities. A pet is not considered a Service Animal or Emotional Support Animal, and, therefore, is not covered by these requirements and related policies. (24 C.F.R. § 5.306(1))

Residents are not permitted to keep pets on University property or in University housing.

PROCESS TO REGISTER SERVICE ANIMAL

A Service Animal does not need approval, as long as it is readily apparent that the dog is trained to do work or perform tasks for the benefit of an individual with a disability, but to reside in student housing, the dog must be registered with the University Housing. The student owner/partner is still required to complete the required forms outlined below.

Must have the following:

- Veterinarian Verification Form (See Appendix F)
- University Housing Approval forms (See Appendix H)
- Vice President of Student Life will review the request and return all original forms to University Housing for final approval.

PROCESS TO OBTAIN PERMISSION FOR EMOTIONAL SUPPORT ANIMAL (EMOTIONAL SUPPORT ANIMAL – DOG OR CAT ONLY)

Must have the following:

- Certification from of Emotional Support Animal Organization <https://www.esaregistration.org/>
- Receipt from the business office of the $500 per semester fee nonrefundable deposit for any qualifying residents to cover the cost of cleaning, sterilizing, and repairing of rooms.
- Veterinarian Verification Form (See Appendix F)
- Emotional Support Animal Disability & Accommodation Verification Form (Must be filled out by a licensed Psychiatrist, Psychologist, or Counselor who is actively treating the applicant, Appendix G) plus a letter from licensed the above on letterhead.
- Residence Life Approval forms (Appendix H)
- FINAL: Approval from Vice President of Student Life

EMOTIONAL SUPPORT ANIMALS POLICY/PROCEDURE/FORMS

PURPOSE

LCU Office of Residence Life is committed to providing access to housing and programs. This policy establishes the process and procedures to enable students with a disability to reasonably introduce their Emotional Support Animal into the housing community. It establishes requirements for animal behavior, animal health and well-being, and animal cleanliness. Students must submit prescribed forms a minimum of 15 days prior to the ESA animal arriving on campus. Updated forms are to be submitted within 24 hours of any change in the information about the animal. Students must reapply annually.

POLICY

This policy applies to all students, live-in staff and their assistance that resides, or is seeking to reside, in the residential facilities of LCU (hereinafter "University").

DEFINITIONS

"Student Owner/partner": As referenced in this Policy, refers to the individual who benefits from the Emotional Support Animal's use or Service Animal's training.

Emotional Support Animal Approval and Registration:

An Emotional Support Animal may be permitted to reside in University Housing with its student owner/partner only after the student owner/partner has submitted required forms and received written approval by the Vice President of Student Life.

An Emotional Support Animal will be approved for an individual provided the following conditions are met:

1. The person has a documented disability as diagnosed by a licensed Psychiatrist, Psychologist, or state certified counselor who is seeing the individual regularly for therapy.
2. The Emotional Support Animal must be necessary for the resident with a disability to have equal access to housing and the accommodation must also be reasonable.
3. There is an identifiable relationship or nexus between the disability and the assistance the animal provides.
4. All required forms are submitted to University Housing.
5. LCU's Vice President of Student Life provides approval of the request.
6. The Emotional Support Animal does not impose an undue financial and/or administrative burden. A non-refundable $500/semester deposit is required to cover the cost of cleaning and sterilizing the room.
7. The Emotional Support Animal does not alter an essential element of the University Housing policies.
8. The Emotional Support Animal does not pose a direct threat to the health and safety of others nor is there a reasonable basis to believe the animal could potentially cause substantial property damage to the property or others, including but not limited to, University Housing property.

University Housing may consider the following factors, among others, to assist in housing assignments, and as evidence to determine whether the presence of the Emotional Support Animal is necessary to accommodate the disability of the student owner/partner.

1. The animal must be over the age of 6 months and spayed or neutered.
2. The size of the animal is too large for available assigned housing space;
3. The animal's presence would evict another individual from individual housing (e.g., serious allergies);
4. The animal's presence otherwise violates another individual's right to enjoyment;
5. The animal is not housebroken or is unable to live with others in a reasonable manner;
6. The animal's vaccinations are not up-to-date;

7. The animal poses or has posed a direct threat to the student owner/partner or other individuals, including but not limited to, aggressive behavior, which may or may not include personal injuries, toward the student owner/partner or others.
8. The animal causes or has caused damages to LCU's Housing property beyond what is normally considered reasonable wear and tear.
9. Renewal of Approval is annual.
10. Disability Services will determine if any accommodation approved by this policy requires periodic renewal.

Guidelines for Animal Care:

1. The student who benefits from the Approved Animal's use (the Owner/partner) is responsible for its care and supervision.
2. The Owner/partner is also responsible for ensuring the cleanup of the animal's waste and, when appropriate, must toilet the animal in areas designated by the University or other teaching site consistent with the reasonable capacity of the Owner/partner. Outdoor animal waste such as dog feces must be immediately retrieved by the Owner/partner, placed in a plastic bag, and securely tied before being disposed of in an outside trash dumpster. For students who reside in campus housing, indoor animal waste, such as cat litter, must be placed in a sturdy plastic bag and securely tied up before being disposed of in outside trash dumpsters. Litter boxes should be placed on mats so that waste is not tracked onto carpeted surfaces.
3. The Owner/partner is financially responsible for any damages caused by the animal, including bodily injury and property damage to any private or University property.
4. The Owner/partner must effectively control the animal at all times. The animal cannot pose a direct threat to the health or safety of others. If the owner/partner cannot effectively control the animal, or if it poses a direct threat to the health and safety of others, the permission to keep that particular animal at the campus or other teaching sites will be rescinded until such time as the problem is rectified.
5. If any animal neglect is suspected, the University will contact the student and Campus Safety. The entire responsibility of the animal should be taken on by the student. The animal should not be left alone on the campus or other teaching sites for extended periods of time.
6. The Approved Animal must be immunized against diseases common to that type of animal. Dogs must have current vaccination against rabies and wear a rabies vaccination tag. Cats should have the shots normally required for a healthy animal. Animals other than cats and dogs to be housed in University residences must have an annual clean bill of health from a licensed veterinarian. Documentation may be a vaccination certificate or a veterinarian's statement regarding the animal's health. The University has the authority to direct that the animal receives veterinary attention.
7. The animal should have a tag identifying the owner/partner and providing contact information in case of emergency.
8. The University reserves the right to request documentation showing that the animal has been licensed, if required by local law.
9. The Owner/partner is responsible at all times for the actions of his or her animal. The student is responsible for any odors, noise, damage, or other conduct of his or her animal that disturbs others or damages property.
10. The Owner/partner must notify Disability Services in writing if the Approved Animal is no longer needed as an Approved Animal or is no longer in residence. To replace an Approved Animal, the Owner/partner must file a new Service and Support Animal Agreement.
11. Any violation of the above rules may result in immediate removal of the Approved Animal from the University and may be reviewed through the Student Conduct system. The Owner/partner will be afforded all of the rights and procedures of that process.
12. Support Animals may only be in privately assigned living spaces in housing with prior authorization from Disability Services. Support Animals must be contained within the privately assigned residential area (room, suite, house, apartment) at all times, except when being transported off campus with the Owner/partner or being taken directly to or from appropriate toileting locations (in an animal carrier or controlled by leash or harness). When outside the residential area, the Owner/partner of a Support Animal shall carry an Approved Accommodation letter as documentation that the animal is approved.

13. The Owner/partner is responsible for assuring that the animal does not interfere with the routine of the residence or cause difficulties for students who reside in the unit. Sensitivity to residents with allergies and to those who fear animals is important to ensure a positive residential community.
14. Students with medical conditions that are affected by animals (e.g., respiratory diseases, asthma, severe allergies) are asked to contact Residence Life if they have a health or safety-related concern about exposure to a Service or Support Animal. The University is prepared to also reasonably accommodate individuals with such medical conditions that require accommodation when living in proximity to Approved Animals. Conflicts will be resolved in a timely manner. The potentially conflicting needs of all persons involved will be considered.
15. Approved Animals may not be left overnight in University residences to be cared for by another student. Approved Animals must be taken with the Owner/partner if the Owner/partner leaves campus for a prolonged period.
16. When an Approved Animal is left alone in a room or residence without a human, it must be kept in a crate, cage, carrier, or other container to ensure that it will not interfere with University staff who may need to enter the unit.
17. The student will cover and is responsible for the costs for repairing and replacing floors, walls, furniture, bedding and any other damage in order to return the unit to the same condition as at move-in.
18. Residence Life will inspect the residence unit on a regular basis, minimally once per semester. If fleas, ticks, or other pests are discovered, the unit will be treated using fumigation appropriate methods by University-approved pest control services, and the Owner/partner's account will be billed for any pest treatment expenses beyond standard pest management in campus residences.
19. If the Owner/partner moves to a different location within University housing, the Director of Residence Life will assign a Residence Life staff member to oversee the move, arranging for staff notification, training, and assistance with reintroduction of the animal to a new community.
20. Should the Approved Animal be removed from the premises for any reason, the Owner/partner is expected to fulfill his/her housing obligations.

Required Forms

Requests for Assistance or Service Animals in LCU's housing facilities are made by completing the following and submitting to University Housing.

1. Certification from of Emotional Support Animal Organization <https://www.esaregistration.org/>
2. Receipt from the business office of $500/semester non-refundable deposit incurred from the animal in the room (carpet, fumigation, sterilization)
3. Veterinarian Verification Form (See Appendix F)
4. Emotional Support Animal Disability & Accommodation Verification Form (Must be filled out by a licensed Psychiatrist, Psychologist, or Counselor who is actively treating the applicant, Appendix G) plus a letter from licensed the above on letterhead.

The student must complete and submit all of the necessary forms listed above to University Housing. Upon receipt of all required information, University Housing will forward the documentation to the appropriate persons for further review and required approval. Please include the following with this application:

1. Physician (Psychiatrist/Psychologist) or Licensed Counselor Request:
  - a. This documentation needs to be completed by a mental health provider that diagnosis and treats mental illness.

- b. A clear statement of the disability, current symptoms which meet the criteria for the diagnosis, and current use of medication.
  - c. Functional limitation and expected impact on performance, recommendations for accommodations, and a concise statement of credentials.
  - d. Documentation must be properly prepared by a licensed professional qualified to diagnose and treat the disability.
  - e. The documentation must be typed or word processed and printed on LETTERHEAD of the practitioner or agency hosting the practice. Handwritten notes on prescription pads ARE NOT accepted.
2. Emotional Support Animal Request: The Office of Vice President of Student Life will retain the Emotional Support Animal Disability & Accommodation Verification Form in its files. If the request is approved, the Office will sign the Assistance and Service Animal Registration form and return all remaining original forms to Residence Life for final approval.

CONFLICTING CONDITIONS

Students with medical condition(s) that are affected by the animal's presence (e.g., respiratory diseases, asthma, and severe allergies) should contact University Housing to address any health or safety related concerns associated with their exposure to the animal. The Residence Life Office will seek to make reasonable accommodations for individuals with such medical conditions that require accommodation when living in proximity to Assistance/Service Animal in a timely manner.

The Residence Life Office will make reasonable efforts to notify the members of the residential community when an Emotional Support Animal is present. The conflicting conditions, needs and/or accommodations of all persons involved will be considered and coordinated to the best of the department's ability in the approval process.

EMERGENCY RESPONSE

Should an emergency situation occur which requires evacuation or other action from the student partner, and an emergency response team be called, the team will attempt to keep the animal and student partner together. However, the team's primary efforts will be toward ensuring the safety of the student partner and all other students, which may necessitate leaving the animal behind in certain emergency evacuation situations.

APPEALS AND GRIEVANCES

Any person dissatisfied by a decision concerning an Assistance/Service Animal may appeal the decision to LCU's Dean of Students.

PUBLIC ETIQUETTE TOWARDS SERVICE OR EMOTIONAL SUPPORT ANIMALS

It is okay to ask someone if they would like assistance if there seems to be confusion, however, faculty, staff, students, visitors and members of the general public should avoid the following practices:

1. Petting an Assistance/Service Animal, as it may distract them from the task at hand.
2. Feeding the Assistance/Service Animal.
3. Deliberately startling the Assistance/Service Animal.
4. Separating or attempting to separate a Handler from their Assistance or Service Animal.

Reports of such behavior will be brought to the Dean of Students.

CODE OF STUDENT CONDUCT POLICIES AND PROCEDURES

CODE OF STUDENT CONDUCT

The Louisiana Christian University Code of Student Conduct exists to reinforce Christian values, to further community and individual responsibility, to ensure personal safety, and to instill respect for the rights of others. The Code is based on the same Biblical principles on which Louisiana Christian University was originally founded. It is designed to be redemptive and to intentionally facilitate reconciliation between the offending student and the University community. Exceptions to this approach may occur when behavior is repetitive, self-destructive, hazardous to others, or involves a significant legal issue that the University is obligated to uphold.

Individual departments, groups, or organizations within the University may establish higher standards of student conduct. Each student is responsible for all applicable standards. Any sanctions imposed as a result of the violation of these higher standards are in addition to any sanctions imposed by the Office of Student Support Services. All students are required to respond immediately to any official request from a Louisiana Christian University employee. Failure to respond may result in additional judicial charges and sanctions.

The Code applies to student conduct both on and off campus and remains in effect for all students until they graduate or officially withdraw from the University, even when classes are not in session. Disciplinary guidelines are to be read broadly and are not designed to define potential violations in exhaustive terms. The Director of Residence Life will handle minor Residential Life issues or violations.

The process is designed to preserve the dignity and privacy of each individual. Confidentiality of judicial proceedings is maintained at all levels with the following exceptions: (1) Appropriate authorities will be notified when students are at risk to harm self or another individual or group, or when a student is alleged to have committed a crime. (2) If an accused student chooses to disclose confidential information regarding judicial proceedings, then the right to confidentiality will be deemed to be waived. The alleged breach of confidentiality will be investigated, and accurate information may then be released to vindicate the actions of the University and the judicial process. (3) The parents of dependent students who violate the Code of Student Conduct may be notified at the discretion of the Dean of Students.

STUDENT RESPONSIBILITIES

Every student admitted to Louisiana Christian University assumes an obligation to adhere to the following:

- A. Understand and abide by the Code of Student Conduct including the student judicial policies and procedures as well as city, state, and federal laws. If studying abroad, the student is also bound by the laws of the countries they visit.
- B. Help create and maintain a learning and living environment in which the rights, dignity, and worth of all persons are respected.
- C. Uphold Christian moral and ethical ideals with regard to academic pursuits, co-curricular activities, manners, social customs, dress, and personal behavior.
- D. Maintain responsible personal behavior as an individual and as a member of a group or organization. All students are also responsible for the conduct of their campus guests.
- E. Respect people and property.

GENERAL INFORMATION

- A. Student Conduct Records. To assure student privacy, student conduct records and investigative materials related to violations of the Code of Student Conduct are kept separate from academic or administrative records and maintained in the Office of Student Support Services. The disclosure of information from the judicial records follows the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act and the exceptions listed above. When disclosure is compelled by legal process or by student consent, authorization will be given only by the Dean of Students, the Vice President of Student Life, the Provost and Vice President for Academic Affairs, or the President of the University. Student conduct records are kept in confidential files for at least five years after the student leaves LCU.
- B. Residence Hall and Vehicle Inspections. Louisiana Christian University respects a student's right to privacy and guards against arbitrary and unnecessary intrusion. University personnel may enter a student's room to ascertain health and safety conditions, check the physical condition of the room, make repairs to facilities, perform custodial operations, and aid in emergency situations. Occupants are required to maintain their rooms in an orderly and hygienic manner. Residence hall staff will make periodic inspections of the rooms to ensure that adequate living standards are maintained. Students failing to maintain adequate standards of cleanliness may be billed for custodial services. Inspections may lead to searches if materials in violation of the Student Code of Conduct are observed.
- C. Search of Persons, Residence Halls, and Vehicles. The University reserves the right to enter and conduct a search of any room. Authorization for searches can be given by the President of the University, the Provost and Vice President for Academic Affairs, the Vice President of Student Life, the Dean of Students, the Director of Residence Life, or his/her designee. In situations where it is deemed that a delay to obtain authorization constitutes a danger to individuals or property or may result in the destruction or disposal of contraband, the room or vehicle can be entered and searched without authorization. Individuals may also be searched if, in the opinion of the University personnel, the person may be in violation of the Code of Conduct and may possess or hide evidence. Reasonable effort will be made to conduct the search in the presence of an occupant of the room, the person who registered the vehicle on campus, and a witness. Trained dogs may be used to assist in a search. A search will be conducted by at least two University employees. A list of objects/items taken as the result of a search will be signed by all individuals involved in the search and witnesses. Any occupant present during the search will be asked to sign the list of objects/items being removed, not as an admission of guilt, but to confirm the items taken.
- D. Off-Campus Conduct. A student charged with a crime or serious violation off campus may be subject to LCU's judicial process. The University reserves the right to initiate judicial proceedings against students if it is deemed to be in the best interest of the University, or if the offense is of a nature that represents a threat to the health, safety, and/or welfare of faculty, staff, or students. LCU's judicial proceedings may be initiated against students separate and in addition to legal or criminal proceedings. The University may proceed with an investigation and sanctions prior to the resolution of any civil actions. Examples of off campus behavior that may subject a student to LCU's judicial process include, but are not limited to, illegal sale, distribution, or manufacture of drugs, possession, consumption or distribution of alcohol, physical assault, battery, rape or sexual assault, child or elder abuse, DWI, theft, murder, shoplifting, arrest and detention.
- E. Reporting. A student has the right and obligation to report a violent act of any kind (sexual or abusive, physical or emotional) as directed in the Clery Act, VAWA (Violence Against Women Act), and Title IX (Sexual Abuse or Harassment). The procedure for reporting is outlined in the Appendix A and B.

- F. Immediate Temporary Suspension. The University reserves the right to suspend a student immediately (prior to formal review) if in the opinion of the Dean of Students the student's continued presence is considered a behavioral or medical risk which poses potential danger to the student or the University community or is otherwise incompatible with the orderly operation of the University.

VIOLATIONS OF THE CODE OF STUDENT CONDUCT

ON AND OFF CAMPUS CONDUCT

Students and employees are expected to comply with the LCU's policies that prohibit unlawful discrimination, including sexual harassment, gender harassment, sexual misconduct, sexual assault, and stalking whether on or off campus. Any student who witnesses or experiences such conduct on campus or off-campus by someone who is a member of the University community is encouraged to report the matter as described later in this section.

Judicial action may be initiated by any member of the University community through the procedures found in the Student Handbook. Sanctions may be imposed upon any student or student organization found in violation of the Code. Violations include but are not limited to the following:

A. DISRESPECT OF COMMUNITY AUTHORITY

1. Failure to Comply with University Officials/Insubordination. Students are obligated to comply with any legal directive or instruction of any University official, faculty, staff, security officer, or those selected to act on behalf of the University (e.g. resident assistant, game room worker, etc.). This includes, but is not limited to, presentation of an ID upon request; appearance when summoned for an official conference; verbally and physically paying respect for University faculty, staff, guests, and vendors; and compliance with campus parking/traffic regulations. Insubordination includes verbal offensiveness and obscene gestures.
2. To Aid, Abet, or Conceal Violators. Students are not permitted to assist, encourage, support, or provide false information regarding a violator/violation of the Code of Student Conduct, or any local, state, or federal laws.
3. Disregard of the Judicial System. Students are obligated to comply with the terms of any University sanction, judicial hearing, or conference. Harassment of any witness, providing false or inaccurate information at any judicial hearing, attempting to influence the impartiality of a member of a hearing board prior to and/or during a judicial hearing, or filing a false complaint are prohibited.
4. Interference or Failure to Comply with Emergency Procedures and Equipment. Intentional interference with emergency procedures prescribed for any building, structure, or facility on University premises, or failing to follow prescribed emergency procedures such as willful disregard of an emergency alarm signal is prohibited, including covering or tampering with smoke alarms.

B. VIOLATION OF PERSONAL WORTH OR SAFETY

1. Possession of Explosives, Firearms, Knives, or Other Weapons. Possession, use, or threatened use of dangerous items including, but not limited to, shotguns, rifles, pistols, air rifles, BB guns, bows, swords, knives, explosives, and other potentially lethal or damaging weapons is prohibited. Paint ball guns, fireworks, and any gas, liquid or other substance or instrumentality, which in the manner used, is calculated or likely to produce death or bodily harm are prohibited. Possession includes but is not limited to one person; residence hall room; office; academic, administrative, or maintenance building; or vehicle. Violation of this article may result in immediate suspension at the discretion of the Dean of Students.

2. Reckless Behavior. Students must avoid any behavior that creates risk or danger to others or the University community. As students of a Christian University, students are expected to conduct themselves at all times in accordance with the highest standards of Christian morality and should not be engaged in any sexually immoral act or lifestyle. Any student who engages in or advocates engagement in sexually immoral acts as defined in the LCU Student Handbook will be subject to disciplinary action.

Below is Louisiana Christian University's Statement on the Biblical Design for Human Sexuality:

We believe that all people should be treated with dignity, grace, and holy love, whatever their sexual beliefs. Sexuality is one of the ways by which the marriage covenant between a husband and a wife is sealed and expressed. Marriage is God's unique gift to reveal the union between Christ and His church and to provide for the man and the woman in marriage in the framework for intimate companionship, the channel of sexual expression according to biblical standards, and the means for procreation of the human race. It is important to note that Christian teaching on marriage and sexuality is in the narrative of all Scripture – from Genesis to Revelation. Marriage, gender and sexuality are not just appendages tacked onto Scripture, but are icons of the Gospel and human flourishing (Matthew 19:4-6; Ephesians 5:22-33; Hebrews 13:4). Sex misses its purpose when treated as an end in itself or when cheapened by using another person to satisfy pornographic and sinful sexual interests. We view all forms of sexual intimacy that occur outside the covenant of heterosexual marriage, even when consensual, as distortions of the holiness and beauty God intended for it.

Therefore, we support the sanctity of marriage (Ephesians 5, Hebrews 13:4). We define marriage as being a covenant between one man and one woman (Gen. 2:21-24; Matt. 19:4-5). We believe in honoring the holy sexual union within the context of that covenant (Hebrews 13:4). Believing that God redeems and restores through life in Christ, we walk alongside those that are seeking to overcome sexual sin (Romans 6-8; Galatians 6:2). As followers of Christ, we turn from sexual immorality in its many forms including but not limited to the following: pornography, pre-marital sexual relations, adultery, and same sex romantic intimacy and/or sexual relations. We come alongside those experiencing same sex attractions who choose to honor Christ by not pursuing those attractions, just as we come alongside all individuals who seek to live in purity before the Lord (Col. 3:5; Gal. 5:19-21; Rom. 1:21-27; 1 Cor. 6:9-10). We believe we are created by God in His image as two distinct sexes: male and female (Gen. 1:26-28; Matt. 19:4-5). We believe that each person glorifies God and affirms His infinite holiness and wisdom by living in alignment with his or her birth sex. While we acknowledge there may be confusion and brokenness for some individuals in this area, we do not affirm or support transgender identity or expression. Instead, we place our faith and trust in God's redemptive plan.

The Importance of Consent

Students must also be aware that engaging in conduct of a sexual nature without the consent of both persons involved may constitute sexual assault. Consent is an active agreement to engage in a certain act or be exposed to a certain situation. Sexual activity without meaningful, explicit, and ongoing consent may be a violation of state and local law. This includes forcing, threatening or coercing an individual into sexual contact under duress and/or against his or her free will. When consent is requested verbally or physically, the absence of any explicit verbal or physical response constitutes lack of consent. Consent can be withdrawn at any time, but once consent has been established a person who changes his or her mind should communicate the withdrawal of consent through words or actions.

A person may be incapable of giving consent due to age, an intellectual or other disability, being asleep or unconscious, or being under the influence of drugs or alcohol. If a person is incapacitated (that is, lacking the physical or mental ability to make informed, rational judgments) to the extent that he or she cannot understand the fact, nature, or extent of the sexual situation, there can be no consent. Sexual activity becomes sexual assault if a sober, reasonable person in the position of the person who is initiating further sexual activity would have known that the other person was incapable of consent.

Because incapacity may be difficult to discern, students should err on the side of caution. When in doubt, assume the other person is incapacitated and unable to give effective consent. The responsibility for establishing true consent falls on the initiator of further sexual activity, even if that person has also been drinking. Being intoxicated or drunk is never a defense to a complaint of violating the University's policy on sexual misconduct.

For details on Louisiana Christian University's procedure on how to report discrimination, assault, sexual assault or any violent (physical or emotion) act, refer to Appendix B on page

Complaints of retaliation will be investigated by the University under the same complaint processes and standards which applied to the original underlying complaint.

Defamatory, inflammatory, indecent, vengeful or immoral information or images posted online may result in disciplinary action by the University, and endanger opportunities for future employment. Students are encouraged to stop and think before they post information or pictures online. Online defamatory remarks about the University or officials of the University are considered unethical, dishonest, and disrespectful. These may also result in disciplinary actions by the University or rejection by future employers

- F. COMPUTER USE - The University's computing and telecommunications equipment and facilities are provided for the use of students, faculty, and staff in fulfilling the mission of the University. Students, faculty members, and staff members should realize that their communications and stored data and information are not automatically protected from viewing by University officials and representatives, and may be accessed for any reason as determined in the sole discretion of the University. At any time and without prior notice, the University's administration reserves the right to examine email, personal file directories, university computers, devices, and other equipment, and any information stored on University servers. This examination assures compliance with internal policies, supports the performance of internal investigations, and assists with the management of the University's resources. The University also reserves the right to demand and recover University computers and to view information on computers or other equipment connected to any University network or server.

Complaints against any student, faculty, or staff member for violation of the Computer Use Policy will be referred to the Dean of Students or appropriate Vice President for consideration and appropriate resolution.

This also includes knowingly or carelessly performing an act that will interfere with the normal operation of computers, terminals, peripherals, or networks. Students are forbidden to access, create, or maintain pornographic sites and/or to send obscene material.

- G. SOCIAL MEDIA - Louisiana Christian University recognizes that blogs, networking sites, and other social media are powerful tools that provide unique opportunities to participate in interactive discussions to support the University's educational, operational, and missional goals. Because the use of social media blurs the lines between personal voice and institutional voice, LCU has crafted the following policy to help clarify how best to enhance and protect personal and professional reputations while participating in social media.

PURPOSE

The purpose of this policy is to provide guidance for the appropriate use of social media by Louisiana Christian University employees and students of record and to ensure that these are used in an appropriate, productive, and lawful manner in accordance with all other LCU policies. Additionally, this policy seeks to ensure accuracy, consistency, integrity, and protection of the identity and image of the University, its employees, and its students.

As a private institution, LCU may restrict "free expression" if it deems that the speech is detrimental or harmful to LCU's core values and mission. Employees and students of the institution who voluntarily choose to work for and/or to attend the institution voluntarily give their informed consent to waive their right to unfettered free speech.

The rapid growth of social media technologies combined with their ease of use and pervasiveness make them attractive channels of communication. However, these tools also hold the possibility of a host of unintended consequences. To help employees and students identify and avoid potential issues, LCU has compiled these guidelines. They are examples of best practices from various institutions and are intended to help social media users understand, from a wide range of perspectives, the implications of participating in social media. The following principles apply to professional use of social media on behalf of Louisiana Christian University as well as the personal use of social media.

All employees and students are responsible for the content they publish on social media and need to know and adhere to the Louisiana Christian University's Code of Conduct. Faculty should refer to the Faculty Handbook and Staff Handbook, other employees and staff should refer to the Staff Handbook, and students should refer to the Student Handbook. All communications on social media should be consistent with the University's mission, policies, standards, and principles. As with any conduct outside of Louisiana Christian University, employees and students will be held accountable for conduct that negatively impacts LCU's core values and mission. This may include, but is not limited to, public internet and online information technology activities where employees and students represent themselves as LCU employees and students, inappropriately share information related to LCU, and/or make inappropriate/unprofessional statements which may negatively impact Louisiana Christian University.

When posting online with a professional or personal account, employees and students should be aware that they are representatives of the University. Online behavior should reflect the same standards of honesty, respect, and consideration that one uses in face-to-face communication. Comments related to LCU, its administration, faculty, staff, and events related to LCU should always meet the highest standards of professional discretion, must be neither inappropriate nor harmful to LCU, its employees, or its students, and must not be contrary to LCU's core values and mission. Employees and students must not use social media to harass, threaten, discriminate, or disparage employees, students, or others associated with the University. Employees and students should not post or participate in unprofessional communication that could negatively impact LCU's reputation or interfere with its core values and mission.

Although not an exclusive list, some specific examples of improper and prohibited social media use includes posting commentary, content, images, or videos that are critical, offensive, denigrating, derogatory, discriminatory, defamatory, pornographic, harassing, libelous, or that attack individual faculty members, staff, students, or the University.

Louisiana Christian University may monitor online activity and social media content of employees and students, so this policy applies to communications and/or equipment not owned by LCU and after-hours activity. Microblogging (Twitter, Facebook, Tumblr, Instagram, etc.) comments made using such media are not protected by privacy settings. Employees and students should be aware of the public and widespread nature of such media and refrain from any comment and/or #hashtags that could be deemed unprofessional or harmful. Online activity at any time, whether it is during the academic year, between terms, semesters, and/or academic years, that violates LCU's policies may subject employees and students to disciplinary action. Administrators, faculty, and staff who violate this policy may be subject to corrective action up to and including termination of employment; students may be subject to corrective action up to and including suspension and expulsion.

POLICY REGARDING STUDENT SOCIAL MEDIA USAGE

The Bible provides each of us with powerful wisdom and guidance to live our lives in a manner that is pleasing to God (Proverbs 13:3). We are called to a high standard of behavior. Accordingly, all students are encouraged to consider the Bible's instruction as they make choices about their speech, both in person and using technology such as social media especially when representing Louisiana Christian University. Students of Louisiana Christian University are representatives of the University and bear the responsibility of social media postings.

Internet services such as Twitter, Facebook, YouTube, Instagram, SnapChat, Google and others enable individuals to interact with an expansive universe of people and to connect with friends and family. While the University supports and encourages individual freedom of expression, it also has concerns about the safety and well-being of students, faculty, staff, and LCU's image.

Postings by students on personal profiles, groups and chat rooms are often in the public domain and easily accessible by anyone including parents, potential employers, graduate school admissions officials, and even predators. Even after it has been deleted, information posted on a web site can sometimes be retrieved by persons with sufficient technical computer skills.

Students are expected to monitor their own social media, and post, or retain ( if sent by others) only information and images that appropriately represent the University and its Christian standards. Students must promptly remove anything posted by someone else which violates this policy.

Educating and protecting students is a primary concern of the University The following information was developed to provide guidance as to what type of behavior is appropriate for social media. These guidelines are not all inclusive; rather, they are intended to be used as a foundation for sound decision making.

Definitions:

A Student of Record: defined as the following: 1) a student who is either currently enrolled or who is eligible to return; 2) a student who has not officially transferred or withdrawn; or 3) a student who has not graduated. The student of record status does not change between terms, semesters, or academic years.

Social Media: Online, electronic, or Internet media, tools, communities, and spaces for social interaction, sharing user generated content, or public or semi-public communication. Social media typically uses web-based technologies to turn communication into interactive dialogs. Social media can take many different forms, including Internet forums, blogs and microblogs, online profiles, wikis, podcasts, pictures and videos, email, text, music-sharing, and chat. Examples of social media include, but are not limited to the following: LinkedIn, Facebook, Flickr, Wikipedia, YouTube, Twitter, Skype, and blogs.

Blogging: Making an entry into a written online journal or forum that is accessible to users of the forum, blog, or Internet.

Cyber-vetting: Refers to accessing publicly available social media or using search engine such as Google and Yahoo to review the online activity or suitability of employees, students, and applicants.

Social Media Use: Refers to posting, participating, or endorsing (such as liking, sharing, or other similar expressions) any content as defined in Social Media.

Improper Social Media Use defined in extremely broad terms includes communications made that are contrary to the best interest of the University, as well as, communication that impairs harmony among co-workers, has a detrimental impact on close working relationships for which personal loyalty and confidence are necessary, impedes the performance of the speaker's official duties, interferes with the regular operation of the University, or otherwise adversely affects LCU.

Examples include the following:

1. Posting or reposting any information that would violate LCU's Christian standards, the Student Code of Conduct, or state and/or federal laws.
2. Students of Louisiana Christian University are representative of the University and should reflect the same standards of honesty, respect, and consideration that one uses in face-to-face communication. Comments related to LCU, its administration, faculty, staff, and events related to LCU should not be inappropriate nor harmful to LCU and all parties involved and must not be contrary to LCU's core values and mission.
3. Posting anything harassing, threatening, discriminating, or disparaging to LCU's employees, students, or others associated with the University, including the following: posting commentary, content, images, or videos that are critical, offensive, denigrating, derogatory, discriminatory, defamatory, pornographic, harassing, libelous, or that attack individual faculty members, staff, students, or the University.

General Guidelines for Participating in Social Media:

1. Before participating in any online community, students should understand that anything posted online is often available to anyone in the world.

Social networking sites may be regularly monitored by several sources within LCU (e.g., Athletics, Student Support Services, Information Technology, and Campus Security) or authorized vendors engaged by LCU to monitor social media.

1. Students who participate in certain high-profile student activities may be required to provide full access to their personal social media to selected employees of LCU or authorized vendors.
2. Students who discover inappropriate information on the social media site of any LCU student are asked to contact the Dean of Students or other LCU administrative staff member. Students should not act on their own accord (e.g., hazing or any form of punishment).

Any violation of law or University policy (e.g., the University's Policy on Prohibited Harassment and Discrimination, Student Rules of Conduct, or Hazing Policy) or evidence of such violation in social media content is subject to investigation and sanction by the University and/or law enforcement agencies.

For helpful information on how to wisely use social media within the bounds of Louisiana Christian University Policy see Appendix A

H. CLASSROOM CONDUCT

A positive instructional environment is essential to student learning. Freedom of thought and expression in the classroom requires an atmosphere of mutual respect among diverse persons and ideas. The responsibility to create the best educational experience is shared between professor and students. Classroom disruptions directly interfere with the academic mission of the University. A student's respectful dialogue with a professor or other student during class, when permitted, is a normal and valuable part of the learning experience. Cordial disagreements should not be seen as disruptive behavior. Students are encouraged to ask relevant questions and voice opinions but may not do so in such a manner that insults the professor or other students in the class.

A disruptive situation in the classroom would be defined as any activity that obstructs the teaching or normal workings of the class and professor.

Unacceptable classroom behaviors include but are not limited to the following:

1. Students continuing to talk after being asked by the professor to stop.
2. Students conducting side conversations during instruction.
3. Students nonverbally showing disrespect for others.
4. Students using vulgar, obscene, or other inappropriate classroom language.
5. Students making disparaging remarks or making slurs based on age, religion, race, ethnicity, gender, nationality, or disability.
6. Student tardiness and disturbing classroom entrances.
7. Students consistently getting up during class, leaving, and then returning.
8. Students packing up books and/or belongings before class is dismissed.
9. Students using their cell phones during class for non-instructional purposes.
10. Students inappropriately using computer or other technology in a disruptive way and for non-instructional purposes.
11. Students verbally indicating dissatisfaction with an activity, assignment, or grade.
12. Students sleeping in class and other inattentive behavior.

More serious classroom transgressions include, but are not limited to:

1. Students coming to class under the influence of alcohol or drugs.
2. Student-to-student anger*
3. Student-to-faculty anger*
4. Verbal assault*
5. Physical assault*
6. Sexual harassment*

* Physical threats or violence are a violation of LCU's Code of Student Conduct (put forth in the Student Handbook). Such incidents must be referred to campus security and the Dean of Students immediately.

Faculty members are ultimately in charge of classroom behavior. If a student continues to be disruptive when given correction by a professor, the professor may ask the student to leave the class for the remainder of the session. In egregious cases, a professor may choose to prohibit a student from attending class while allegations of serious misconduct are being investigated.

Most cases of classroom disruption can be eliminated by sitting down with offending students and determining if an agreement can be reached for the student to continue in the class. This meeting should take place with the professor, offending student, and the chair of the department. If an agreement is reached, the student may be permitted to attend class again with the understanding that if disruptive behavior continues the student will be referred to the Dean of Students.

If a student appears to be on the edge of being violent, professors should avoid directly confronting the student and should summon campus security as well as the Dean of Students. Professors should immediately write down a factual account of the incident, including any witnesses, and send the document to the Dean of Students.

If a student is referred to the Dean of Students, the offending student will be subject to the formal disciplinary procedures outlined in the student code of conduct policy. Sanctions may be applied including and up unto suspension from the University. The Dean of Students shall have the power to take any reasonable action to ensure the safety of the campus community at large as well as to preserve the academic atmosphere.

Any appeal of sanctions involving the classroom conduct policy will follow the normal student conduct appeal process as outlined in the Student Handbook.

I. CHAPEL AND CULTURAL EVENT CONDUCT

A critical component of the mission of the University is the spiritual growth of all students. Attending chapel, special educational opportunities, and other cultural events is essential in forming well-rounded students. Students attending these opportunities are expected to behave in a respectful manner to the speaker, attending professors, and other attendees. LCU has a zero tolerance for disruptions and rude behavior. Students who elect to disregard the protocols of proper conduct will be removed from the facility and will not receive credit for attendance. Furthermore, students will be subject to formal disciplinary action by the Dean of Students, including but not limited to, loss of scholarships and suspensions. Students who are removed multiple times will be subject to suspension.

Examples of disruptions and rude behavior include but are not limited to the following:

1. Students using cellphones and laptops during presentations when not warranted.
2. Students sleeping.
3. Students talking and having side conversations.
4. Students jeering or making fun of presenters.
5. Students verbally indicating dissatisfaction with a presenter.

6. Students asking divisive questions of the presenter.
7. Students leaving event before it concludes.
8. Students falsely reporting attendance of event.
9. Students disrespecting University officials when misbehavior is corrected.

J. RECORDING OF CONVERSATIONS- To provide an environment that is not disruptive to campus morale, is consistent with the respectful treatment required of all employees and students and does not inhibit them from speaking freely about campus issues.

1. No employee (faculty, staff, or administrator) may record, by any means, a conversation with any employee(s) or student(s) without his, her, or their full knowledge and consent unless another University policy specifically states that a meeting will be recorded. Examples of such policies include, but are not limited to, the Procedural Guidelines for Academic Dishonesty Hearings and the Code of Student Conduct Violation Process.
2. No student may record, by any means, a conversation with any student(s) or employee(s) (faculty, staff, or administrator) without his, her, or their full knowledge and consent.
3. A violation of this policy may result in disciplinary action, up to and including termination or expulsion.

K. OTHER VIOLATIONS

1. Disruption. Internal disruption or obstruction of teaching, research, academic pursuits, administration, disciplinary proceedings, or other University activities is prohibited. Individual students or groups of students may not in any way disrupt the normal operation for which a facility is being used or impede the flow of pedestrian or vehicular traffic on the campus. The persistent interruption of a reasonable level of peace and quiet is also a violation.
2. Dishonesty. All forms of dishonesty including, but not limited to, cheating, knowingly furnishing false information to the University, forgery, alteration or unauthorized use of University documents or instruments, lying, identification with intent to defraud, or plagiarism, is prohibited. Allowing unauthorized use of identification cards, meal tickets, etc. is also prohibited. The matter of academic dishonesty is dealt with in the "Code of Academic Integrity" in the Student Handbook.
3. Solicitation. Individuals are not permitted to solicit within University facilities for business, political, or other purposes. Advertisements may be posted in designated areas with the expressed approval of the Office of Student Support Services (phone 487-7134).
4. Dancing. Louisiana Christian University does not permit social dancing on campus and does not sponsor dances off campus.
5. Other. Other potential violations that may cause disciplinary action are addressed in related areas of the Student Handbook, e.g., Residential Life.

PROCEDURES FOR JUDICIAL PROCESS

All persons affiliated with Louisiana Christian University shall report violations of the Student Code of Conduct to the Director of Safety and Security, the Director of Residential Life, or the Dean of Students. However, all reported violations should be handled by the Dean of Students who is responsible for the judicial process.

Dean of Students: The Dean of Students receives and reviews the violation report and then determines whether or not to investigate the allegation or to assign the investigation to the Committee for Student Accountability.

Committee for Student Accountability: Through the annual university process for selecting committee members, nine members are asked to serve on the Committee for Student Accountability. The Committee consists of one administrator, four faculty members, and four students. The responsibility for participating in Judicial Hearings will rotate among the four faculty members and the four student members on a case-by-case basis as available. A quorum consists of the chair and four members that includes at least one student. The requirement for student participation will be waived if the hearing is to occur during academic breaks, the last week of the fall or spring terms, finals, May or Summer terms. Any faculty or student member of the committee who has information/knowledge about the case may not discuss that information during the hearing or deliberations. Students who have a prior relationship with the disciplined student must recuse themselves from the process.

Investigation: If the Dean of Students decides to conduct the investigation, he/she will determine if there is sufficient evidence to bring charges against the accused student and will hold a Judicial Hearing. If the Dean elects to assign the investigation to the Committee for Student Accountability, the Chair of the Committee will investigate the complaint to determine if there is sufficient evidence to bring charges against the accused student, and the Committee will be responsible for conducting the Judicial Hearing.

After the investigation, any student or student organization accused of violating the Code of Student Conduct for the first time will be entitled to a Judicial Hearing on the disciplinary charge with the Dean of Students or the Committee. The Dean of Students is responsible for notifying the student at least 72 hours in advance of the hearing of the student's right and obligation to participate in the Judicial Hearing. In order to expedite the hearing, the student may sign a waiver recusing the right to the 72-hour notice.

Judicial Hearing: At the Judicial Hearing, the complainant may also participate when appropriate. Accused students have the right to be accompanied by a student advocate to offer support and insight. However, the student may not be accompanied by an attorney, and the student advocate cannot participate in the hearing unless invited to do so by the Dean of Students or the Chair of the Committee. The Judicial Hearing is not a court of law, and the formal rules of evidence are not necessary. Records and audio recordings of the Hearing will be maintained in the Office of the Dean of Students.

At the commencement of the Hearing, the student shall be informed once again of the charge against him/her. Tape recordings and/or written notes will be maintained during the Judicial Hearing and kept in the student discipline file. The Dean of Students (or Committee) shall determine whether the student is guilty of a violation of the Code of Student Conduct. After hearing all of the evidence, the Dean of Students (or Committee) may (1) dismiss the complaint on account of procedural error or unsupported conclusions; or (2) uphold the charges, impose sanctions, and prepare a Judicial Document.

Sanctions/Judicial Document: The Judicial Document will include a description of the violation as well as any sanctions imposed. A written copy of the Judicial Document will be made available to the accused student following the Judicial Hearing. The accused student is responsible for picking up and signing a copy of the document once it is completed. The Judicial Document has two required signature lines: 1) one signature line states that the student has received and read the decision; 2) an additional signature line states that the student agrees to abide by the Judicial Hearing decision. The student must sign the document stating that he/she has received the document and read the decision.

The student has three options for the additional required signature:

- 1) The student agrees to the Judicial Hearing decision and signs the Judicial Document within one business day of receipt of the document. The sanctions described in the document are imposed, the judicial process is complete, and the Judicial Hearing decision may not be appealed.

2) The student does not agree with the Judicial Hearing decision but does not want to appeal, the sanctions will be upheld.

3) The student disagrees with the Judicial Hearing decision and elects to appeal the decision.

NON-APPEALABLE DISCIPLINARY OFFENSES:

While Louisiana Christian University is fully committed to a disciplinary process that is both fair and expeditious, some disciplinary offenses are of such a severe nature that they may threaten the campus community and/or the safety of students, faculty, and staff. Therefore, the following offenses have been designated as non-appealable.

This means the finding of the Judicial Hearing will be imposed immediately without the right to appeal. These include:

- a. Illegally possessing, using, selling, or distributing any type of narcotic, marijuana, stimulants, hallucinogens, or other similar drugs and/or chemicals on or off campus.
- b. Possession or use of any weapon, i.e., guns, knives, explosives. A “weapon” may be defined as any object that is used with the intent to inflict harm.

STUDENT APPEALS:

If the Dean of Students conducts the investigation and the Judicial Hearing, the student will appeal to the Committee for Student Accountability, and if the Committee for Student Accountability conducts the investigation and the Judicial Hearing, the student will appeal to the Dean of Students.

Decisions of the Judicial Hearing may be appealed by the accused student or the complainant for any of the following reasons:

1. Procedural error
2. Unsupported conclusions

If the Dean of Students (or Committee for Student Accountability) determines that the appeal meets one of the aforementioned appeal criteria and hears the appeal, the Dean (or Committee) will determine one of the following:

1. Dismiss the charges
2. Uphold the charges and sanctions

If the Dean of Students or Committee for Student Accountability does not determine that the appeal meets the criteria needed for an appeal, the original decision and sanctions imposed by the Dean of Students (or the Committee for Student Accountability) will be implemented.

PROCESS FOR STUDENT APPEALS:

1. A student must deliver a typed and signed letter of appeal to the Dean of Students within 72 hours of receiving the Judicial Documents and sanctions.
2. If the Dean of Students conducted the investigation and Judicial Hearing, he/she will forward the appeal to the Committee for Student Accountability to determine if the appeal meets one of the criteria for an appeal. If the Committee for Student Accountability conducted the investigation and Judicial Hearing, the Dean of Students will determine if the appeal meets one of the criteria.

3. If it does not meet criteria, the appeal will be rejected, and the initial sanctions apply. The Dean of Students will inform the student.
4. If the appeal warrants moving forward with a hearing, a hearing will be scheduled, and the student will be given a minimum of 72-hour notice of the hearing. To expedite the judicial process, a student may waive the 72-hour requirement.
5. Notices will include the date and time of the appeal hearing and may be given by phone, email, or hand delivered. Students living off-campus will typically be contacted by phone, email, or text. Contact will be documented and signed off on by either the Dean of Students or designated official. In the event the student refuses to accept delivery of the notice, such refusal will constitute notice and will also be noted and documented in writing. If repeated attempts to contact the student fail, the student may forfeit rights to a second level hearing. If warranted, the complainant may also be notified of the date and time of the appeal.
6. On the day of the scheduled hearing, the accused and the complainant may present their cases. If the accused student fails to appear at the hearing, the sanctions will be upheld, and no further appeal will be permitted.
7. If needed, the Dean of Students will be present to present the judicial record and to answer any procedural questions.
8. The student may be accompanied by a student advocate for support, but the advocate may not actively participate in proceedings unless requested to do so. The advocate will only be allowed to be present in the hearing room during questioning of the student and the complainant. Students may not be accompanied by an attorney. The advocate will be dismissed from the proceedings if he/she becomes disruptive.
9. During the hearing, the student has a right to explain the facts related to the incident(s), why he/she is not guilty, and/or why a sanction is not warranted. Witnesses may be called into the room and questioned to provide information supporting or refuting the alleged violation(s). Neither the accused student nor the complainant may question witnesses, nor be allowed in the hearing room while such questioning takes place. The student is not allowed to cross-examine witnesses or the complainant during any of the proceedings. The Dean of Students (or Committee of Student Accountability) has the discretion to include or exclude testimony as it deems fair and appropriate under the circumstances.
10. After all statements, questions, and supporting information have been submitted, the Dean (or Committee) will go into an executive session to deliberate and come to a decision. The decision of the Committee will be by majority vote, and the Chair of the Committee will submit a written copy of the Committee's decision to the Dean of Students. The Dean's (or Committee's) decision is final and non-appealable with ONE exception. If the sanction is expulsion, the student may make one final appeal to the President of the University.
11. The Dean of Students will notify the student within 72 hours of the decision.
12. Records of the appeal will be maintained in the Office of Student Support Services.
13. Digital recordings and/or written notes will be maintained during the presentation of the case. However, deliberations of the Committee of Student Accountability will not be recorded under any circumstances. All recorded and written evidence, including evidence or prior offenses by the accused, presented at any level of the judicial process will be available at any and all subsequent hearings.

FINAL APPEAL TO THE UNIVERSITY PRESIDENT:

If the sanction for the offense is expulsion, the student may make a final appeal to the President. The student must deliver a typed and signed letter of appeal to the President within 72 hours of receiving the final decision of the appeal. The President will consider the appeal and render a written decision within 72 hours of receiving the student's appeal letter.

POSSIBLE SANCTIONS FOR CODE OF STUDENT CONDUCT VIOLATIONS

Responsible disciplinary action is designed to hold a student accountable for behavior while providing the opportunity to learn from mistakes and grow in character. Judicial sanctions are imposed upon a student or student organization for violation(s) of the Code of Student Conduct. Designated University officials and committees investigate violations and determine the appropriate sanctions if warranted. Under some circumstances, severe sanctions such as suspension, denial of a degree, or expulsion from the University may be imposed upon the first violation. Investigative records and notices of sanctions become a part of the student's conduct record and may be considered in any future proceeding by the Dean of Students, the Committee for Student Accountability, or other University official. Government agencies, graduate schools, and prospective employers often inquire about a former student's disciplinary records. A student who violates the Code of Student Conduct is subject to one or a combination of the following sanctions:

- A. Interim Suspension: suspension of hours or days while awaiting further judicial action. The Dean of Students or his/her designee may impose an interim suspension: (1) to ensure the safety and well-being of the student and members of the campus community (2) to protect University property or (3) to prevent disruption or interference with the normal operations of the University. During an interim suspension, the student shall be denied access to the residence halls and/or to the campus (including classes) and/or all other University activities or privileges for which a student might otherwise be eligible, as the Dean of Students may determine to be appropriate. Students found in violation of the terms of an interim suspension are subject to expulsion from the University and to prosecution under local, state, and federal laws. Non-students are subject to prosecution under local, state, and federal laws and may be disallowed on the campus.
- B. Censure: a written reprimand for violation of specified requirements of the Code of Student Conduct.
- C. Restitution: the reimbursement for damages to or misappropriation of property. This may take the form of appropriate service or other compensation. Common assessment may be made to groups of students for damage occurring in common areas shared by group members, such as residence hall lobbies or hallways.
- D. Fines: a monetary penalty may be imposed in addition to restitution.
- E. Community Service Hours: the student or student organization is required to perform or complete a task for a specific number of hours within a specific time period.
- F. Educational Assignments: may include but are not limited to attendance at educational programs, preparation of personal essay(s), written reflection on issues relevant to one's violation of the Code of Conduct, or involvement in a mentoring process/relationship.
- G. Counseling: students may be referred for counseling, either on campus or to an appropriate professional agency, at the expense of the student. A series of private conferences with the student may be scheduled to help the student better assume responsibility as a mature citizen, adjust to the behavioral standards of the University community, and be considerate of other people and their rights.
- H. Suspension of Privileges: limitation of activities or privileges for a designated period of time. The violator may be prohibited from active participation in extracurricular clubs, governing groups, varsity athletics, intramural programming, and other student activities. While a student may continue to attend classes and practice varsity athletics, the student is not allowed to represent the University in public performance venues. This includes, but is not limited to, debate tournaments, musical and theatrical performances, and athletic events.
- I. Suspension of the Use of a Motor Vehicle on Campus: prohibits the student from having or operating a motor vehicle on campus and/or permitting someone else to operate a motor vehicle he/she owns or has in his/her possession.

- J. Confiscation: removal of offensive or prohibited property.
- K. Eviction: prohibition or removal of a student from residence halls or other campus facilities as designated in a written notification.
- L. Judicial Probation: the student or student organization is placed on supervisory status for a specified period of time. Judicial Probation may include the loss of some privileges, such as participation in University activities, holding any student office or committee chair, or use of University facilities or services. Additionally, no student on Judicial Probation will be allowed to participate in any overseas program. The continued enrollment of the student depends on the maintenance of satisfactory citizenship during the period of probation.
- M. Indefinite Judicial Probation: the student or student organization is placed on supervisory status for an indefinite period of time to remain in effect until such a time as the official in charge shall determine that the probationary status should be lifted. Indefinite Judicial Probation may include the loss of some privileges, such as participation in University activities, holding any student office or committee chair, or use of University facilities or services. Additionally, no student on Indefinite Judicial Probation will be allowed to participate in any overseas program. The continued enrollment of the student depends on the maintenance of satisfactory citizenship during the period of probation.
- N. Areas Placed Off Limits: restricts the student from certain areas or facilities.
- O. Residence Hall Suspension: separation of the student from the residence halls for a definite period of time, after which the student is eligible to return. Conditions for readmission may be specified. Suspended students are restricted from visiting or entering any residential facility operated by the University during the period of separation. When suspended from the residence halls, students should be aware that they may forfeit their residence hall deposits and fees subject to any refund policies.
- P. Suspension: the student or student organization's status is temporarily terminated and all privileges are removed for a specified period. Students who are suspended may not be on campus, enter University facilities, or participate in University activities either on or off the campus for a designated period of time. Any suspended student found in violation is subject to arrest for trespassing. Tuition and fees will not be refunded to students who are suspended from the University. On return, the student must apply for readmission to the Dean of Students. Special conditions affecting eligibility for readmission or conditions to be in effect upon readmission may be designated upon request for readmission.
- Q. Suspension without Option to Return: the student is suspended permanently and may not be on campus for anything except official business. The student must notify Security and the Dean of Students prior to entering campus. Any suspended student who violates this prohibition will be subject to arrest for trespassing.
- R. Expulsion: permanent dismissal from the University. There is no refund of tuition, room, board, or fees to students who are expelled. Any expelled student found in violation is subject to arrest for trespassing. Students who have been expelled from school must leave the campus within the period of time specified by the Dean of Students or designee. Students who do not leave the campus within the allotted time or do not obtain written permission from the Dean of Students to remain on campus will be prosecuted.

STUDENT COMPLAINT POLICY

Louisiana Christian University aspires to provide an education and services of highest quality to its students and to provide equity and harmony in the application of University policies and procedures. When a student has a complaint, resolution should be sought through informal communication with the appropriate instructor, dean, staff member, or administrative officer who may be able to help rectify or clarify the situation before a written complaint is initiated.

Formal Complaint Procedures

The Student Complaint Policy does not supersede specific policies involving special cases such as grade appeals, record appeals, judicial appeals, etc.

Lodging a Formal Student Complaint: A student who wishes to lodge a formal complaint with the University must complete and submit the formal complaint form to the appropriate Executive Leadership Team level officer. The form is located in the online Student Handbook. Hard copies can be obtained in the Office of the Provost and Academic Affairs. The complaint should be submitted in writing within 14 calendar days of the incident.

Administrative Complaint Acknowledgment: The Executive Leadership Team member will forward the formal student complaint to the administrator (supervisor) most immediately responsible for the area to which the complaint pertains. The administrator will send a written acknowledgment to the student within five working days of receiving the complaint indicating that the formal complaint form has been received and that the student will receive a written response after deliberation within approximately ten working days. A copy of the acknowledgement letter will be sent to the Executive Leadership Team level officer responsible for the area.

Administrative Deliberation and Response: If the administrator to whom the complaint is forwarded determines that the nature of the complaint is beyond his/her area of supervision or expertise, the next level administrator in the area should be consulted and may be requested to respond to the student. Administrative disposition of the complaint will generally consist of investigation into the source of the complaint, previous efforts to resolve the issue, and any contingencies that will aid in the deliberation and disposition of the problem. The responding administrator will send to the student a written statement of attempted resolution to the problem. A copy of the deliberation response will be sent to the appropriate Executive Leadership Team level officer. After resolution, all formal student complaints will be forwarded and housed in the Provost's Office.

Student Appeal Process: Upon receiving a deliberation response to the written complaint, the student has the right of appeal to successive levels of administrators within the area. This appeal must be made in writing within five working days of receiving the administrative response. In each case, the student will receive an acknowledgement of the appeal within five working days and a deliberation response within ten working days from the date of the acknowledgment letter.

Administrative Levels for Student Complaints: The appropriate Executive Leadership Team level officer for student complaints will be as follows:

APPENDIX A: TITLE IX POLICY

2021-2022

Title IX

Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 is a federal civil rights law that prohibits discrimination on the basis of sex in any education program or activity that receives federal funding. Title IX is a powerful tool for students who want to combat gender-based discrimination at school and on university campuses. Under Title IX, discrimination on the basis of sex include sexual harassment, rape and sexual assault.

Background on the Title IX Rule:

Since the beginning of her tenure, Secretary DeVos has worked to ensure all students have the freedom to learn in a safe environment, free from discrimination. Through these efforts, revisions have been made to Title IX. Key provisions of the Department of Education's new Title IX regulation:

- Defines sexual harassment to include sexual assault, dating violence, domestic violence, and stalking, as unlawful discrimination on the basis of sex
- Provides a consistent, legally sound framework on which survivors, the accused, and schools can rely
- Requires schools to offer clear, accessible options for any person to report sexual harassment
- Empowers survivors to make decisions about how a school responds to incidents of sexual harassment
- Requires schools to offer survivors supportive measures, such as class or dorm reassignments or no-contact orders
- Holds colleges responsible for off-campus sexual harassment at houses owned or under the control of school-sanctioned fraternities and sororities
- Restores fairness on college and university campuses by upholding a student's right to written notice of allegations, the right to an advisor, and the right to submit, cross-examine, and challenge evidence at a live hearing
- Shields survivors from having to come face-to-face with the accused during a hearing and from answering questions posed personally by the accused
- Requires schools to select one of two standards of evidence, the preponderance of the evidence standard or the clear and convincing evidence standard, and to apply the selected standard evenly to proceedings for all students and employees, including faculty
- Provides "rape shield" protections and ensures survivors are not required to divulge any medical, psychological, or similar privileged records
- Requires schools to offer an equal right of appeal for both parties to a Title IX proceeding
- Gives schools flexibility to use technology to conduct Title IX investigations and hearings remotely
- Protects students and faculty by prohibiting schools from using Title IX in a manner that deprives students and faculty of rights guaranteed by the First Amendment

Title IX Coordinator's Responsibilities

Louisiana Christian University is committed to responsibly investigating all discrimination and harassment as outlined by Title IX. To do this, the Title IX coordinator adheres to the following rubric:

Investigation: Thorough, Reliable, Impartial

Process: Prompt, Effective, Equitable

Remedy:End the Discrimination

Below outlines information about LCU's sexual harassment policy and the associated grievance procedures is distributed as part of the University's compliance with Title IX.

What is Sexual Harassment?

Louisiana Christian University is committed to providing an environment that is free of sexual harassment. In keeping with this commitment, federal and state laws, and biblical standards, the University will not tolerate any form of sexual harassment.

Sexual harassment is defined as:

Unwelcome sexual advances, requests for sexual favors and other verbal or physical conduct of a sexual nature, when:

- Submission to such conduct is made either implicitly or explicitly a term or condition of an individual's employment or status in a course, program, or activity.
- Submission or rejection of such conduct by an individual is used as the basis for employment or education decisions affecting such individual; or such conduct has the purpose or effect of interfering with the individual's work or educational performance; of creating an intimidating, hostile, or offensive working and/or learning environment; or of interfering with one's ability to participate in or benefit from an education program or activity.

Examples of Sexual Harassment:

- Sexual advances, physical or implied, or direct propositions of a sexual nature.
- A pattern of conduct, which can be subtle in nature, which has sexual overtones and is intended to create or has the effect of creating discomfort and/or humiliating another.

What to Do

If the incident(s) involve sexual assault or rape, immediately contact the Pineville Police Dept., at 318-442-6603. Such crimes are also considered sexual harassment and as such may be reported under LCU's Policy on Harassment.

If students experience, observe, hear about, or believe someone has been sexually harassed in any way, they should make a report of the facts of the incident(s) in a timely manner:

- If the accused is a student, contact either the Title IX Coordinator or other reporting official listed at the conclusion of this handbook under Campus Contacts. Students may report to any administrator or faculty/staff member (coach, Student Life personnel, etc.) on campus and those persons will move the information where it needs to go.
- If the accused is a LC employee, students should contact the Director of Human Resources at 318-487-7051.

The University will not tolerate sexual harassment of its students and will investigate all allegations of sexual harassment. Where sexual harassment is found, steps will be taken to end it immediately.

Students who, in good faith, report what they believe to be sexual harassment, or who cooperate in any investigation, will not be subject to retaliation.

Any student who believes he/she has been the victim of retaliation for reporting sexual harassment or cooperating in an investigation should immediately contact the Title IX Coordinator.

What to Expect

Any student who is a victim of sexual harassment can request assistance from Student Affairs of Louisiana Christian University.

In dealing with sexual harassment and rape on campus, LCU strongly encourages the full prosecution of all local, state and federal laws.

Victims should contact the Pineville Police Department by dialing 911 from a campus telephone. Victims may also choose to report the incident to Campus Security at 318-308-6505 or 7233 from a campus telephone. LCU, in accordance with University policy, will file all necessary documents with the Pineville Police Department upon receiving a complaint of sexual assault.

BE INFORMED ABOUT SEXUAL HARASSMENT TITLE IX

APPENDIX B: VIOLENCE AGAINST WOMEN ACT POLICY AND PROCEDURE

2021/22

The Violence Against Women Reauthorization Act (VAWA) of 2013 was signed into law by President Obama on March 7, 2013. It amended the Violence Against Women Act and the Clery Act to provide new requirements for post-secondary schools participating in Title IV financial aid programs to prevent and respond to sexual violence, domestic violence, dating violence, and stalking. The requirements became effective March 7, 2014. Some of these requirements include providing primary prevention education and awareness programs for all incoming students and employees; expanding the collection of crime statistics to include domestic violence, dating violence, and stalking in addition to current requirements to collect sexual assault statistics; expanding the collection of hate/bias crime statistics to include national origin and gender identity; issuing complainants a written notice of their rights; and adopting grievance policies that are prompt, fair, and impartial as well as administered by trained officials.

Louisiana Christian University does not discriminate on the basis of sex in its educational programs and sexual harassment and sexual violence are types of sex discrimination. Other acts can also be forms of sex-based discrimination and are also prohibited whether sexually based or not and include dating violence, domestic violence, and stalking. As a result, LCU issues this statement of policy to inform the community of our comprehensive plan addressing sexual misconduct, educational programs, and procedures that address sexual assault, domestic violence, dating violence, and stalking, whether the incident occurs on or off campus and when it is reported to a University official. In this context, LCU prohibits the offenses of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault and stalking and reaffirms its commitment to maintain a campus environment emphasizing the dignity and worth of all members of the University community.

Primary Prevention Education for Students

In an effort to create and maintain a safe campus community, LCU offers all students education during their first semester on campus for Sexual assault prevention, alcohol and drug awareness, bystander intervention, and risk reduction.

Primary Prevention Education for Employees

The University strives to achieve and maintain equal opportunity, inclusiveness, equitable treatment, and access to education, employment, and services for all individuals. As part of this commitment, the University strictly prohibits the offenses of sexual assault, sexual harassment, domestic violence, dating violence, and stalking.

These offenses are real. According to the U.S. Center for Disease Control, nearly 1 in 5 (18.3%) women and 1 in 71 men (1.4%) reported experiencing rape at some time in their lives. Approximately 1 in 20 women and men (5.6% and 5.3%, respectively) experienced sexual violence other than rape, such as being made to penetrate someone else, sexual coercion, unwanted sexual contact, or non-contact unwanted sexual experiences over a 12-month time period. As members of the Louisiana Christiann Univeristy community, it is important that we are part of the solution, not the problem.

To that end, a new training program has been added to the New Hire Task list. This training is associated with Title IX and the Violence Against Women Act. This training will be required for all new hires set up in the New Hire system and serves to educate employees on what behaviors constitute sexual misconduct and interpersonal violence and what their responsibilities are for preventing and reporting such conduct. This program will also provide them with ways in which they can intervene as a bystander. As members of the University, it is up to us to create an environment in which interpersonal violence is unacceptable and survivors are supported.

Sex Offenders Registry Policy and Procedure

In accordance to the "Campus Sex Crimes Prevention Act" of 2000, which amends the Jacob Wetterling Crimes against Children and Sexually Violent Offender Registration Act, the Jeanne Clery Act and the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act of 1974, The Louisiana Christian University Department of Safety and Security is providing a link to the Louisiana State Police Sex Offender Registry. This act requires institutions of higher education to issue a statement advising the campus community where law enforcement information provided by a State concerning registered sex offenders may be obtained. It also requires sex offenders already required to register in a State to provide notice of each institution of higher education in that State at which the person is employed, carries a vocation, or is a student. Any person who uses information contained in or accessed through the Louisiana State Police Sex Offender and Child Predator Registry Website to threaten, intimidate, or harass any individual, including registrants or family members, or who otherwise misuses this information, may be subject to criminal prosecution or civil liability. The Louisiana State Police is responsible for maintaining this registry. Follow the link below to access the Louisiana State Police website.

Policy on “Who to Report To”:

The University encourages individuals who have experienced Prohibited Sexual Conduct to talk about what happened so they can get the support they need and so the University can respond appropriately. This section identifies University employees who are authorized to receive reports, their roles, and their ability to maintain an individual’s confidentiality.

Responsible Employees Policy

A Responsible Employee is an University employee who has the authority to redress sexual violence, who has the duty to report incidents of sexual violence or other student misconduct, or who a student could reasonably believe has this authority or duty. When an individual tells a Responsible Employee about an incident of sexual violence, the individual has the right to expect the University to take immediate and appropriate steps to investigate what happened and to resolve the matter promptly and equitably.

A Responsible Employee must report to the Title IX Coordinator all relevant details about the alleged Prohibited Sexual Conduct shared by the individual, including the names of the individual who allegedly experienced Prohibited Sexual Conduct and alleged perpetrator(s), any witnesses, and any other relevant facts, including the date, time and specific location of the alleged incident. To the extent possible, information reported to a Responsible Employee will be shared only with people responsible for handling the University’s response to the report.

The following individuals are the University’s Responsible Employees:

- Dr. Juanita Moorman, Title IX Coordinator
- Dean Brian Manuel, Dean of Students
- Ms. Meredith Rennie, Vice President of Student Life
- Dr. Joshua Dara, Special Assistant to the President for Legal Affairs & Special Projects
- Dr. Cheryl D. Clark, Provost/VPAA
- Coach Reni Mason, Vice President of Collegiate Athletics
- Ms. Janet Sanders, RN, Director of Health Services
- Chief John Dautat, Director of Safety and Security

- Amy S. Dufrene, LPC-S, NCC, BC-TMH, Director of Mental Health & First-Year Experience

Other Mandatory Reporters Policy

In addition to Responsible Employees, it is mandatory that all University employees (other than the Confidential Resources listed below) report Prohibited Sexual Conduct to the Title IX Coordinator, the individual's supervisor, or another Responsible Employee.

Confidential Reporting Resources Policy

Some individuals on and off the University are required to maintain near complete confidentiality. Talking to these individuals is sometimes called a privileged communication. The trained professionals designated below can provide counseling, information, and support in a confidential setting. These confidential resources will not share information about a patient/client (including whether that individual has received services) without the individual's express, written permission unless there is a continuing threat of serious harm to the patient/client or to others or there is a legal obligation to reveal such information (e.g., suspected abuse or neglect of a minor).

Confidential Advisors Policy

Pursuant to La. R.S. 17:3399.15, no later than the beginning of the 2016-2017 academic year, the University shall designate Confidential Advisors. Contact information for the Confidential Advisors will be provided at that time on the University's website. Those individuals designated as Confidential Advisors shall complete online training developed by the Attorney General in collaboration with the Board of Regents.

The Confidential Advisor shall inform the Complainant of the following:

- Their rights under federal and state law, as well as University Policy;
- Reporting options and potential outcomes;
- Investigation and disciplinary/adjudication proceedings of the University and the criminal justice system;
- Potential accommodations; and
- Emergency response options.

The Confidential Advisor may liaise with the University on behalf of the Complainant, as appropriate. In addition, the Confidential Advisor may accompany the Complainant through various proceedings in the Investigation.

The Confidential Advisor shall not be obligated to report crimes to the institution or law enforcement in a way that identifies an alleged victim or an accused individual, unless otherwise required to do so by law.

Policy on How to Report

The University encourages all individuals, whether a Complainant, witness, or third party, to promptly report Prohibited Sexual Conduct directly to the Title IX Coordinator, the Office of the Dean of Students, or the LCU Department of Safety and Security. After normal business hours, individuals are encouraged to report incidents of Prohibited Sexual Conduct to the LCU Department of Safety and Security. The reporting options are the same whether the reporter is a Complainant, a witness, third party, or other individual.

The University recognizes that deciding whether to make a report and choosing how to proceed are personal decisions that may evolve over time. At the time a report is made, a Complainant does not have to decide whether to request any particular course of action. Through a coordinated effort, staff from the offices listed below provide support to assist each individual in making these important decisions, and consistent with the goal of safety for all community members, will make every effort to respect an individual's autonomy in making the determination as to how to proceed. Any individual can also make a report to external law enforcement agencies, including those listed below. If a report is made to the police, the University and the police may share information under certain circumstances.

Anonymous Reporting Policy

Any individual may make a report of Prohibited Sexual Conduct to the University without disclosing his or her name and without identifying Respondent or requesting any action. Depending on the level of information available about the incident or the individuals involved, LCU's ability to respond to an anonymous report may be limited. These reports will be referred to the Title IX Coordinator.

Reporting Considerations:

Timeliness and Location of Incident Policy

All individuals, including a Complainant, witness, or third party, are encouraged to report Prohibited Sexual Conduct regardless of when or where it occurred, as soon as possible to maximize the ability to respond promptly and effectively. The University does not, however, limit the time frame for reporting. If Respondent is no longer a student at the time of the report, or if the conduct did not occur on campus, in the context of an education program or activity of the University, or have continuing adverse effects on campus or in an off-campus education program or activity, the University may not be able to fully investigate nor take disciplinary action against Respondent. In each instance, the University will still provide any fair and reasonable support and resources to a Complainant designed to end the Prohibited Sexual Conduct, prevent its recurrence, and address its effects. The Title IX Coordinator will also help a Complainant identify external reporting options.

Amnesty Policy

Any individual, including a Complainant, witness, or third party, who makes a report, will not be subject to disciplinary action by the University for his/her, personal consumption of alcohol or other drugs at or near the time of the incident.

Procedure for Resolution Policy:

Initial Assessment Policy

When a report is made, the Title IX Coordinator will conduct an Initial Assessment. The Initial Assessment will determine whether the alleged conduct would present a potential violation of the Policy and whether further action is warranted based on the alleged conduct.

Preliminary Meeting Policy

The first step of the Initial Assessment will usually be a preliminary meeting between Complainant and the Title IX Coordinator or designee to gather facts that will enable the Title IX Coordinator to:

- Assess the nature and circumstances of the allegation;
- Address any immediate concerns about the physical safety and emotional well-being of the Complainant and Respondent;
- If the conduct is criminal in nature, notify Complainant of the option to notify law enforcement;
- Provide Complainant with information about:
- On and off campus resources, including the availability of medical treatment to address any physical and mental health concerns, including counseling and support, and to preserve evidence, whether or not
- Complainant chooses to make an official report or participate in the institutional disciplinary or criminal process;
- The available range of Interim Protective Measures; and
- Procedural options, including Voluntary Resolution, Investigation, and Appeal.
- Discuss Complainant's expressed preference for manner of resolution and any barriers to proceeding;
- Explain the University's policy prohibiting Retaliation;
- Explain the role of the Support Person and Advisor;
- Assess potential pattern evidence or other similar conduct

Requests for Confidentiality or No Formal Action Policy

Where a Complainant requests that his/her name or other identifiable information not be shared with Respondent or that no formal action be taken, the Title IX Coordinator will balance this request against the following factors in reaching a determination whether the request can be honored:

- The nature and scope of the alleged conduct;
- The respective ages and roles of Complainant and Respondent;
- The risk posed to any individual or to the campus community;
- Whether there have been other reports of misconduct by Respondent;
- Whether the report reveals a pattern of misconduct at a given location or by a particular group;
- Complainant's wish to pursue disciplinary action;
- Whether the University possesses other means to obtain relevant evidence;

- Considerations of fundamental fairness and due process with respect to Respondent should the course of action include disciplinary action against Respondent;
- The University's obligation to provide a safe and non-discriminatory environment.

Where possible based on the facts, circumstances, and the factors listed above, the Title IX Coordinator will seek action consistent with Complainant's expressed preference for manner of resolution, recognizing that the University must move forward with cases. LCU's ability to fully investigate and respond to a report may be limited if Complainant requests that their name not be disclosed to Respondent or declines to participate in an Investigation.

Determination of Resolution Route

At the conclusion of the Initial Assessment, the Title IX Coordinator will determine the appropriate resolution route. Resolution may include: (1) no further action; (2) Voluntary Resolution; or (3) the initiation of an Investigation that may lead to disciplinary action.

Regardless of the manner of resolution, a Respondent may choose to accept responsibility at any stage in the process.

Nondisclosure Policy

The University will not require a party to abide by a nondisclosure agreement, in writing or otherwise, that would prevent the re-disclosure of information related to the outcome of proceedings under this Policy.

Voluntary Resolution Policy

Voluntary Resolution is a path designed to eliminate the conduct at issue, prevent its recurrence, and remedy its effects in a manner that meets the expressed preference of Complainant and the safety and welfare of the campus community. Voluntary Resolution does not involve an Investigation or disciplinary action against a Respondent and is not appropriate for all forms of conduct under the Policy.

If a Complainant requests Voluntary Resolution, and the Title IX Coordinator concludes that Voluntary Resolution is appropriate based on the Initial Assessment, the Title IX Coordinator will take appropriate action designed to protect Complainant's access to employment, educational, and extracurricular opportunities and benefits at the University. A Complainant may request and decide to pursue Voluntary Resolution at any time. In those cases in which the Voluntary Resolution involves either notification to or participation by Respondent, it is Respondent's decision whether to accept Voluntary Resolution.

Voluntary Resolution may include the following: establishing Interim Protective Measures; conducting targeted or broad-based educational programming or training for relevant individuals or groups; providing increased monitoring, supervision, or security at locations or activities where the misconduct occurred; facilitating a meeting between Respondent and Complainant (in cases that do not involve Sexual Assault); and any other remedy that can be tailored to the involved individuals to achieve the goals of the Policy. In some forms of Voluntary Resolution, the remedies will focus on supporting Complainant with no participation or involvement by Respondent. In other forms of Voluntary Resolution, Respondent may agree to participate. Depending on the remedy employed, it may be possible for a Complainant to maintain anonymity.

Voluntary Resolution may also include the option to allow a Respondent to accept responsibility for misconduct and acknowledge harm to Complainant or to the University community.

As the title implies, participation in Voluntary Resolution is a choice, and either party can request to withdraw and pursue an Investigation at any time, including if Voluntary Resolution is unsuccessful. Similarly, a Complainant can request to end an Investigation and pursue Voluntary Resolution at any time. Either party may request Interim Protective Measures regardless of whether any particular course of action is sought.

Voluntary Resolution is not mediation. Mediation is never appropriate in Sexual Misconduct cases.

Investigation Policy

Following the Initial Assessment, and in consultation with Complainant, the University will initiate a prompt, thorough, and impartial Investigation of conduct that is a potential violation of the Policy and is not being addressed through Voluntary Resolution. The Title IX Coordinator will designate an investigator(s) who has training and experience investigating allegations of Prohibited Sexual Conduct. The investigator will coordinate the gathering of information to make an Investigative Finding regarding whether the alleged conduct constitutes a violation of the Policy by a preponderance of the evidence. A preponderance of the evidence means that it is more likely than not that the conduct occurred.

Information gathered during the Investigation will be used to evaluate the appropriate course of action, provide for individual and campus safety, and identify the need for additional Interim Protective Measures and other remedies to eliminate the alleged conduct and to address its effects.

Time Frame for Resolution Policy

Consistent with the goal to maximize educational opportunities and minimize the disruptive nature of the Investigation and resolution, the Title IX Coordinator seeks to resolve all reports within one academic semester, depending on when the report is received. In general, an Investigation will typically last up to sixty (60) days, from the date the Title IX Coordinator determines there is sufficient information to determine if the allegation raises a potential violation of this Policy and that Investigation is the appropriate route for Resolution. This time frame does not include Appeals. The Title IX Coordinator may set reasonable time frames for required actions under the Policy. Time frames may be extended for good cause to ensure the integrity and completeness of the Investigation, comply with a request by external law enforcement, accommodate the availability of witnesses, Complainant, or Respondent, account for University breaks, or address other legitimate issues, including the complexity of the Investigation and the severity and extent of the alleged conduct. Complainant and Respondent will be given periodic status updates throughout the process. Best efforts will be made to complete the process in a timely manner by balancing principles of thoroughness and fundamental fairness with promptness.

Investigative Process Policy

After the Title IX Coordinator initiates an Investigation, the investigator will notify Complainant and Respondent of the Investigation, which constitutes a formal charge. The notification will include a summary of the allegation or conduct at issue, the range of potential violations under the Policy, and the range of potential sanctions. Once the notification has been made to Complainant and Respondent, the Investigation phase begins.

Upon notification, or at any stage in the process, Respondent may choose to accept responsibility for the Policy violation. Even if Respondent accepts responsibility for the Policy violation, the investigator may continue the Investigation as necessary to determine appropriate sanction(s).

The investigator will also inform Complainant and Respondent that they have the ability to challenge the investigator based on an actual conflict of interest, bias, or lack of impartiality. Any such challenge must be submitted in writing to the Title IX Coordinator within three (3) business days of the notification. The challenge must clearly state the grounds to support a claim of bias, conflict of interest, or an inability to be fair and impartial.

Failure to timely object eliminates the possibility of any later appeal or objection based on the assertion that the investigator had a conflict of interest, was biased, or lacked impartiality.

The Title IX Coordinator will oversee the Investigation by the investigator. The Investigation is designed to provide a fair and reliable gathering of the facts by a trained and impartial investigator. All individuals, including Complainant, Respondent, and any third party witnesses, will be treated with appropriate sensitivity and respect throughout the Investigation. The Investigation will safeguard the privacy of the individuals involved in a manner consistent with federal law and University policy.

During the Investigation, Complainant and Respondent will have an equal opportunity to be heard, to submit information, and to identify witnesses who may have relevant information. The investigator will speak separately with Complainant, Respondent, and other individuals willing to participate and who have relevant information. As part of the Investigation, the investigator may gather or receive information that is relevant to the determination of an appropriate sanction or remedy, including information about the impact of the alleged incident on Complainant and Respondent. The investigator will gather any available physical or documentary evidence, including prior statements by Complainant, Respondent, or witnesses, any communications between the Complainant and Respondent, email messages, social media messages, text messages, and other records as appropriate and available. In the event Respondent declines to participate in proceedings or withdraws from the University, the Investigation and Appeal may proceed without Respondent. A Respondent that withdraws from the University prior to a finding will not be eligible to return to the University until the proceedings under the Policy have been finally concluded.

If a Respondent accused of Sexual Misconduct seeks to transfer to another institution during an Investigation, the University shall withhold the Respondent's transcript until such Investigation or adjudication is complete and a final decision has been made. The University shall inform the Respondent of the University's obligation to withhold the transcript during the Investigation.

At any meeting or proceeding related to the resolution of an allegation under the Policy, Complainant or Respondent may have a Support Person and/or an Advisor present. The Support Person and/or Advisor may not be otherwise a party or witness involved in the Investigation or proceedings. A party's inclusion of a Support Person or Advisor is at the sole initiative and expense of the party.

Once chosen by a Complainant or Respondent to serve as an Advisor, at the discretion of the Title IX Coordinator or investigator, the Advisor may be required to meet with the Title IX Coordinator in advance of any attendance of any activity related to the Investigation to understand the expectations of the role, privacy considerations, and appropriate decorum.

The University, its officials, Title IX Coordinator, and investigator will at all times only communicate directly with Complainant and Respondent even if he/she authorizes the Advisor to receive information on his/her behalf. It is the party's responsibility to communicate and share information with his/her Advisor. Where the University is made aware that there is a concurrent criminal investigation, the Title IX Coordinator will coordinate with law enforcement so that any University processes do not interfere with the integrity or the timing of the law enforcement investigation. At the request of law enforcement, the University may agree to defer the fact-finding portion of its Investigation until after the initial stages of a criminal investigation. The Title IX Coordinator will nevertheless communicate with Complainant and Respondent regarding resources and accommodations, procedural options, anticipated timing, and the implementation of any necessary Interim Protective Measures for the safety and well-being of all affected individuals.

All community members, including students, faculty, and staff, are expected to cooperate with the Title IX Coordinator and investigator in the Investigation, as well as any Appeal, to assure fairness and procedural due process. The Title IX Coordinator may request the appearance of persons from the University community who can provide relevant evidence. Both a Complainant and a Respondent may decline to participate in proceedings under the Policy.

Relevance and Special Considerations Policy

The investigator has the discretion to determine the relevance of any witness or other evidence to the finding of responsibility and may exclude information in preparing the Investigation Report if the information is irrelevant, immaterial, or more prejudicial than informative. The investigator may also exclude statements of personal opinion by witnesses and statements as to general reputation for any character trait, including honesty. The investigator will not exclude direct observations or reasonable inferences drawn from the facts.

Character Evidence Policy

Character evidence is information that does not directly relate to the facts at issue, but instead, reflects upon the reputation, personality, qualities, or habits of an individual. In general, information regarding the character of Complainant, Respondent, or any witness is not relevant to the determination of whether there is a Policy violation.

Prior Sexual History Policy

Questioning about Complainant's sexual history with anyone other than Respondent should not be permitted. Further, the University recognizes that the mere fact of a current or previous consensual dating or sexual relationship between Complainant and Respondent does not itself imply Consent or preclude a finding of a violation of the Policy.

Consultation of Other Administrative Units Policy

In reaching these determinations, the investigator will consult with other administrative units with information relevant to the Investigation. The investigator may also seek information from the Office of Student Support Services and the Office of the Dean of Students regarding prior disciplinary history and the LCU Department of Safety and Security regarding prior criminal history.

Consolidation of Reports Policy

At the discretion of the University, multiple reports may be consolidated in one Investigation if the information related to each incident would be relevant and probative in reaching a determination on the other incident. This includes, but is not limited to, matters where the evidence of the other conduct is inextricably intertwined with Prohibited Sexual Conduct under the Policy. Matters may also be consolidated where they involve multiple Complainants, multiple Respondents, or related conduct involving the same parties that would otherwise have been heard under the Student Code of Conduct (provided that it does not delay the prompt resolution of determinations of violations of this Policy).

Review of Draft Investigation Report Policy

At the conclusion of the Investigation, the investigator will prepare a written report that summarizes the information gathered, synthesizes the areas of agreement and disagreement between Complainant and Respondent with any supporting information or accounts, and includes an Investigative Finding regarding whether a Policy violation occurred. However, at the discretion of the investigator and based on the circumstances, before the report is finalized Complainant and Respondent may be given the opportunity to review a draft Investigation Report, which will not include the Investigative Finding, and may be presented in redacted format. Complainant and Respondent will not receive an electronic or written copy, nor may they photograph or copy the draft Investigation Report.

If allowed to view the draft Investigation Report, Complainant and Respondent may submit any additional comment or information to the investigator within five (5) business days of the date of the notice of the opportunity to review the draft Investigation Report. This is the final opportunity for Complainant and Respondent to identify any additional information or witnesses prior to an Investigative Finding. In the absence of good cause, information discoverable through the exercise of due diligence that is not provided to the investigator either at this juncture or prior to the conclusion of the Investigation will not be considered by the investigator or Appeal Panel.

Investigative Finding Policy

Upon the conclusion of the Investigation, the investigator will make an Investigative Finding, by a preponderance of the evidence, regarding whether a Policy violation occurred.

Sanctions Policy

In keeping with LCU's commitment to foster an environment that is safe, inclusive, and free of Prohibited Sexual Conduct, the Policy provides the Title IX Coordinator with wide latitude in the imposition of sanctions tailored to the facts and circumstances of each violation of the Policy, the impact of the Prohibited Sexual Conduct on Complainant and surrounding community, and accountability for Respondent. The imposition of sanctions is designed to eliminate Prohibited Sexual Conduct, prevent its recurrence, and remedy its effects, while supporting the University's educational mission and federal and state obligations. Sanctions may include educational, restorative, rehabilitative, and punitive components, including suspension or expulsion.

The Title IX Coordinator, in concert with the investigator, is responsible for determining the appropriate sanction(s).

In determining appropriate sanction(s), the following factors shall be considered:

- The nature and violence of the conduct at issue;
- The impact of the conduct on Complainant;
- The impact or implications of the conduct on the University community;
- Prior misconduct by Respondent, including Respondent's relevant prior discipline history, both at the University or elsewhere, including criminal convictions;
- Whether Respondent has accepted responsibility for the conduct;
- Maintenance of a safe and respectful environment conducive to learning; and
- Any other mitigating, aggravating, or compelling circumstances to reach a just and appropriate resolution in each case.

Restorative outcomes may also be considered that, taking into account the safety of the University community as a whole, allow Respondent to develop insight about his/her responsibility for the behavior, learn about the impact of the behavior on Complainant and the community, and identify how to prevent or change the behavior.

Sanctions may be imposed individually or in combination.

Furthermore, if the Respondent is found responsible for sexually oriented criminal offenses upon the completion of such Investigation and/or adjudication and seeks to transfer to another institution, the University is required to communicate such a violation, when the University becomes aware of the Respondent's attempt to transfer, with the institution(s) to which the Respondent seeks to transfer or has transferred.

Remedies Policy

The Title IX Coordinator may identify short and long-term or permanent remedies to address the effects of the conduct on Complainant and ensure there are no barriers to Complainant's ability to benefit from the University's employment or educational opportunities. Such remedies should seek to restore to Complainant, to the extent possible, all benefits and opportunities lost as a result of the Prohibited Sexual Conduct. The Title IX Coordinator will also identify remedies to address the effects of the conduct on the University community, such as conducting targeted or broad-based educational programming or training for relevant individuals or groups; providing increased monitoring, supervision, or security at locations or activities where the misconduct occurred; and any other remedy that can be tailored to the campus community to achieve the goals of the Policy.

The Title IX Coordinator will consider the appropriateness of remedies, including Protective Measures, on an ongoing basis to assure the safety and well-being of the parties throughout the process. Long-term remedies may include extending or making permanent any Interim Protective Measures or implementing additional measures tailored to achieve the goals of the Policy. Many of the remedies and supports that a Complainant might need after a finding of a Policy violation will have already been provided as Interim Protective Measures. The Title IX Coordinator will, in all cases, consider whether there is a need for additional remedies. Additional remedies or supports may be included in the sanctions, such as reassignment or removal of Respondent from a class or a dormitory. Notification of Investigative Finding, Sanctions, and Remedies

Both Complainant and Respondent will be notified of the Investigative Finding in writing concurrently. Complainant will also be notified of any individual remedies offered or provided to Complainant or any sanctions imposed on Respondent that directly relate to Complainant. Respondent will be notified of any sanctions imposed, but will not be notified of the individual remedies offered or provided to Complainant. These notifications will also include information on the Appeal process.

Investigation Outcome Conference Policy

Upon notification to Complainant and Respondent of the Investigative Finding, and where appropriate, recommended sanction(s) and/or remedy(ies), each party will have the opportunity to meet, separately, with the Title IX Coordinator. The Title IX Coordinator will share the Investigative Finding and, as applicable, the recommended sanction(s) with Complainant and Respondent and the remedy(ies) with Complainant. During the Investigation Outcome Conference, Complainant and Respondent will each have an opportunity to review the Investigation Report, which may be redacted. Complainant and Respondent will not, however, receive an electronic or written copy, nor may they photograph or copy the Investigation Report.

After an Investigative Finding, both Complainant and Respondent may:

- Accept both the Investigative Finding and recommended sanction(s);
- Accept the Investigative Finding, but request an Appeal on the recommended sanction(s); or,
- Request an Appeal on the Investigative Finding and recommended sanction(s).

If either party requests an Appeal, the matter will be referred to an Appeal Panel to determine whether a Policy violation was committed and/or if the appropriate sanction(s) were issued. Complainant and Respondent must communicate their chosen course of action to the Title IX Coordinator in writing (e.g., email, facsimile, letter) within five (5) business days of notification of the Investigative Finding. At the conclusion of the Investigation Outcome Conference, one of the following will occur:

Where both Complainant and Respondent agree to the Investigative Finding and any recommended sanction(s), or where neither party requests an Appeal, the Investigative Finding and any sanction(s) will become final. The finality of the Investigative Finding and any sanction(s), which is not subject to further appeal or review, will be communicated to Complainant and Respondent, in writing concurrently. Concerning the finality of sanctions, Complainant will only be notified of any sanctions imposed on Respondent that directly relate to Complainant.

If either party challenges the Investigative Finding and/or sanction(s), the Title IX Coordinator will issue a Notice of Appeal to Complainant and Respondent and forward the report for Appeal procedures by the Appeal Panel. The Title IX Coordinator shall have sole discretion to determine whether any sanctions or remedies are put on hold pending the Appeal outcome.

Appeal Policy and Procedure

Scope of Appeal

The scope of review by the Appeal Panel is determined by what Complainant and/or Respondent have appealed. The parties may Appeal the Investigative Finding and/or the sanction(s). If the Investigative Finding is appealed, the scope of the Appeal includes review of the factual findings, Investigative Finding, and any sanction(s). If only the sanctions are appealed, the scope of the Appeal includes review of appropriate sanctions based on the factual findings and Investigative Finding.

In order for a Support Person or an Advisor to participate in an Appeal Hearing, Complainant or Respondent must complete and submit an informational form to the Appeal Chair no later than five business days prior to the Appeal Hearing. If required by the Appeal Chair, the Support Person or Advisor must also meet with the Appeal Chair in advance of participation in any activity related to any Appeal Hearing to understand the expectations of the role, privacy considerations, and appropriate decorum. Neither the Support Person nor the Advisor can be a fact witness or provide testimony in the proceedings.

The University, its officials, Title IX Coordinator, investigator, and Appeal Panel will at all times only communicate directly with Complainant and Respondent even if Complainant or Respondent authorizes the Advisor to receive information on his/her behalf. It is the party's responsibility to communicate and share information with his/her Advisor.

When scheduling an Appeal Hearing before the Appeal Panel in which a party has notified the University that an Advisor plans to attend, the University will make reasonable efforts to accommodate the Advisor's schedule, while balancing the University's commitment to a prompt and equitable process. The University will prioritize the availability of the parties, witnesses, and Appeal Panel members assigned to the matter when determining the date and time for the Appeal Hearing.

A party's Support Person and/or Advisor may not delay, disrupt, or otherwise interfere with the Appeal procedures. An Advisor may be present at Appeal meetings or related proceedings, but may not speak or participate.

Appeal Panel Policy

Upon receipt of a Notice of Appeal Hearing, an Appeal Panel will be appointed by the President or the President's designee to review all relevant information gathered in the Investigation. An Appeal Panel is comprised of three (3) individuals, selected from a diverse pool of trained individuals. Any individual designated by the University to serve on an Appeal Panel must have sufficient training or experience to serve in this capacity. An University student may not serve as a panelist. An Appeal Panel member must decline to participate if he/she has an actual conflict of interest, bias, or lack of impartiality. The Appeal Chair may also dismiss an Appeal Panel member on the same or other relevant grounds.

An Appeal Chair will conduct and preside over the Appeal Hearings. The Appeal Chair is not a voting member of any Appeal Panel, but is available to provide consistency in process, informed understanding of Policy definitions, and guidance as to available sanctions; the Appeal Chair will also draft the Appeal Panel findings.

The Appeal Chair will notify Complainant and Respondent who the members of the Appeal Panel are prior to the Pre-Appeal Hearing Meeting.

Pre-Appeal Hearing Meeting Policy

As a first step, the Appeal Chair will meet separately with the investigator, Complainant, and Respondent to resolve pre-Appeal Hearing concerns. At these pre-Appeal Hearing meetings, Complainant and Respondent will each have the opportunity to identify the witnesses (who have already been identified to or interviewed by the investigator during the Investigation) they wish to call at the Appeal Hearing; raise any challenge to the composition of the Appeal Panel based on bias, conflict of interest, or lack of impartiality; and identify any evolving or newly discovered information that has been obtained that was not previously available during the Investigation process through the exercise of due diligence, which would substantially affect the Investigative Finding or and/or sanction(s) imposed. Complainant and Respondent will also have the opportunity to address questions about the Appeal process. If not participating in the Appeal Hearing, Complainant is not required to attend this meeting.

Complainant and Respondent have the ability to challenge an Appeal Panel member based on an actual conflict of interest, bias, or lack of impartiality. The request must be submitted in writing or raised no later than the date of the pre-Appeal Hearing meeting and must clearly state the grounds to support a claim of bias, conflict of interest, or an inability to be fair and impartial. Failure to object by the date of the pre-Appeal Hearing meeting eliminates the possibility of appealing the Appeal Hearing Outcome based on the assertion that a member of the Appeal Panel had a conflict of interest, was biased, or lacked impartiality.

Appeal Hearing Policy

The Appeal Hearing will take place in a closed session. The factual findings, Investigative Finding, and any sanctions are presumed to be correct. The party appealing the Investigative Finding and/or sanctions has the burden of demonstrating that the Investigative Finding and/or sanctions were incorrect. At the Appeal Hearing, the investigator will present the evidence supporting the findings and the evidence supporting it. The party appealing will be responsible for presenting evidence showing that the factual findings, Investigative Finding, and/or sanction(s) imposed were incorrect.

In reaching its decision, the Appeal Panel will solicit information from the investigator, Complainant, Respondent, and/or any witnesses as appropriate to ensure a full assessment of the relevant facts. This information shall be provided in the presence of Complainant and Respondent, unless he/she waives his/her right to participate.

Upon request, Complainant, Respondent, or witness may participate by telephone or video conference or may request that a visual barrier be placed to limit the individual's exposure to other Appeal Hearing participants.

Questions directed to Complainant, Respondent, the investigator, and any witnesses will be made through the Appeal Chair. Complainant and Respondent may submit questions to the Appeal Chair, who will screen them for relevance. In all instances, the Appeal Chair may require measures to assure the integrity of the process.

In making its determination, the Appeal Panel may not consider any information that was not presented during the Appeal Hearing. The Appeal Panel's determination must be reached by a majority vote. The Appeal Panel will make a determination of whether there were any errors in the factual findings, Investigative Finding, and/or sanction(s) imposed. Based on the information presented, the Appeal Panel may:

- Affirm, alter, or reverse the factual findings; and/or
- Affirm, alter, or reverse the Investigative Finding; and/or
- Affirm, alter, or reverse the sanction(s) imposed.

Imposition of Sanctions Policy

Possible Sanctions for Code of Student Conduct Violations

Responsible disciplinary action is designed to hold a student accountable for behavior while providing the opportunity to learn from mistakes and grow in character. Judicial sanctions are imposed upon a student or student organization for violation(s) of the Code of Student Conduct. Designated University officials and committees investigate violations and determine the appropriate sanctions if warranted. Under some circumstances, severe sanctions such as suspension, denial of a degree, or expulsion from the University may be imposed upon the first violation. Investigative records and notices of sanctions become a part of the student's conduct record and may be considered in any future proceeding by a student conduct committee, Vice President, Dean of Students, or other University official. Government agencies, graduate schools, and prospective employers often inquire about a former student's disciplinary records. A student who violates the Code of Student Conduct is subject to one or a combination of the following sanctions:

- A. Interim Suspension: suspension of hours or days while awaiting further judicial action. The Dean of Students or his/her designee may impose an interim suspension: (1) to ensure the safety and well-being of the student and members of the University community (2) to protect University property or (3) to prevent disruption or interference with the normal operations of the University. During an interim suspension, the student shall be denied access to the residence halls and/or to the campus (including classes) and/or all other University activities or privileges for which a student might otherwise be eligible, as the Dean of Students may determine to be appropriate. Students found in violation of the terms of an interim suspension are subject to expulsion from the University and to prosecution under local, state, and federal laws. Non-students are subject to prosecution under local, state, and federal laws and may be disallowed on the campus.
- B. Censure: a written reprimand for violation of specified requirements of the Code of Student Conduct.
- C. Restitution: the reimbursement for damages to or misappropriation of property. This may take the form of appropriate service or other compensation. Common assessment may be made to groups of students for damage occurring in common areas shared by group members, such as residence hall lobbies or hallways.
- D. Fines: a monetary penalty may be imposed in addition to restitution.
- E. Community Service Hours: the student or student organization is required to perform or complete a task for a specific number of hours within a specific time period.
- F. Educational Assignments: may include but are not limited to attendance at educational programs, preparation of personal essay(s), written reflection on issues relevant to one's violation of the Code of Conduct, or involvement in a mentoring process/relationship.
- G. Counseling: students may be referred for counseling, either on campus or to an appropriate professional agency, at the expense of the student. A series of private conferences with the student may be scheduled to help the student better assume responsibility as a mature citizen, adjust to the behavioral standards of the University community, and be considerate of other people and their rights.
- H. Suspension of Privileges: limitation of activities or privileges for a designated period of time. The violator may be prohibited from active participation in extracurricular clubs, governing groups, varsity athletics, intramural programming, and other student activities. While a student may continue to attend classes and practice varsity athletics, the student is not allowed to represent the University in public performance venues. This includes, but is not limited to, debate tournaments, musical and theatrical performances, and athletic events.

- I. Suspension of the Use of a Motor Vehicle on Campus: prohibits the student from having or operating a motor vehicle on campus and/or permitting someone else to operate a motor vehicle he/she owns or has in his/her possession.
- J. Confiscation: removal of offensive or prohibited property.
- K. Eviction: prohibition or removal of a student from residence halls or other campus facilities as designated in a written notification.
- L. Judicial Probation: the student or student organization is placed on supervisory status for a specified period of time. Judicial Probation may include the loss of some privileges, such as participation in University activities, holding any student office or committee chair, or use of University facilities or services. Additionally, no student on Judicial Probation will be allowed to participate in any overseas program. The continued enrollment of the student depends on the maintenance of satisfactory citizenship during the period of probation.
- M. Indefinite Judicial Probation: the student or student organization is placed on supervisory status for an indefinite period of time to remain in effect until such a time as the official in charge shall determine that the probationary status should be lifted. Indefinite Judicial Probation may include the loss of some privileges, such as participation in University activities, holding any student office or committee chair, or use of University facilities or services. Additionally, no student on Indefinite Judicial Probation will be allowed to participate in any overseas program. The continued enrollment of the student depends on the maintenance of satisfactory citizenship during the period of probation.
- N. Areas Placed Off Limits: restricts the student from certain areas or facilities.
- O. Residence Hall Suspension: separation of the student from the residence halls for a definite period of time, after which the student is eligible to return. Conditions for readmission may be specified. Suspended students are restricted from visiting or entering any residential facility operated by the University during the period of separation. When suspended from the residence halls, students should be aware that they may forfeit their residence hall deposits and fees subject to any refund policies.
- P. Suspension: the student or student organization's status is temporarily terminated and all privileges are removed for a specified period. Students who are suspended may not be on campus, enter University facilities, or participate in University activities either on or off the campus for a designated period of time. Any suspended student found in violation is subject to arrest for trespassing. Tuition and fees will not be refunded to students who are suspended from the University. On return, the student must apply for readmission to the Dean of Students. Special conditions affecting eligibility for readmission or conditions to be in effect upon readmission may be designated upon request for readmission.
- Q. Suspension without Option to Return: the student is suspended permanently and may not be on campus for anything except official business. The student must notify Security and the Dean of Students prior to entering campus. Any suspended student who violates this prohibition will be subject to arrest for trespassing.
- R. Expulsion: permanent dismissal from the University. There is no refund of tuition, room, board, or fees to students who are expelled. Any expelled student found in violation is subject to arrest for trespassing. Students who have been expelled from school must leave the campus within the period of time specified by the Dean of Students or designee. Students who do not leave the campus within the allotted time or do not obtain written permission from the Dean of Students to remain on campus will be prosecuted.

Notice of Appeal Finding Policy

Complainant and Respondent will be notified of the Appeal Finding in writing concurrently. The notification of Appeal Finding will include, where applicable, the finding by the Appeal Panel as to whether a Policy violation occurred, the rationale for the result, and a brief summary of the evidence on which the decision is based, as appropriate. Where there is a finding of a Policy violation, Complainant will also be notified of any sanctions imposed on Respondent that directly relate to Complainant. Respondent will be notified of any sanctions imposed, the date by which the requirements must be satisfied (if applicable), and the consequences of failure to satisfy the requirements.

Post-Resolution Follow up Policy

After a sanction or remedy is issued, the Title IX Coordinator may periodically contact Complainant to ensure the Prohibited Sexual Conduct has ended and to determine if additional remedies are necessary and may contact Respondent or others to assure compliance with any sanctions that have been imposed. Complainant may decline future contact. Any violation by a Respondent of a sanction or protective measure imposed under the Policy or a failure by an University employee to provide a specified remedy should be reported to the Title IX Coordinator. Complainant and Respondent are encouraged to provide the Title IX Coordinator with feedback about their experience with the process and recommendations regarding ways to improve the effectiveness of the University's implementation of the Policy.

Documentary Records of Student Discipline Policy

Records documenting disciplinary actions brought against students for violation of the Policy shall be maintained by appropriate offices, including the Title IX Coordinator's office and the Division of Student Affairs, as part of a student disciplinary record separate from the transcript. At the conclusion of the Appeal Hearing, the official record of the Appeal Hearing will be turned over to the Title IX Coordinator's office.

Release of Report on the Results of Any Disciplinary Proceeding

LCU will, upon written request, disclose to the alleged victim of a crime of violence (as that term is defined in Section 16 of Title 18, United States Code), or a non-forcible sex offense, the report on the results of any disciplinary proceeding conducted by LCU against a student who is the alleged perpetrator of such crime or offense. If the alleged victim is deceased as a result of such crime or offense, the next of kin of such victim shall be treated as the alleged victim for purposes of this paragraph.

Accommodations for Victims Policy

LCU will provide written notification to victims about options for, available assistance in, and how to request changes to academic, living, transportation and working situations or protective measures. The University will make such accommodations or provide such protective measures if the victim requests them and if they are reasonably available, regardless of whether the victim chooses to report the crime to campus police or local law enforcement

Definitions

Where starred (*), the terms listed herein are defined as stated in the Louisiana Board of Regents' Uniform Policy on Sexual Misconduct.

Advisor: is any individual who provides Complainant or Respondent support, guidance, or advice.

Appeal: is the process by which Complainant or Respondent may challenge the Investigative Finding and/or sanction(s).

Appeal Hearing: is a component of the Appeal process in which the Appeal Panel considers evidence and makes a determination of whether a Policy violation occurred, and if so, what sanction(s) should be imposed.

Appeal Panel: is the group of individuals appointed by the President to make determinations of whether a Policy violation occurred, and if so, what sanction(s) should be imposed based on evidence presented during an Appeal Hearing.

Complainant: is the person alleged to have been affected by Prohibited Sexual Conduct in violation of the Policy.

Coercion*: is the use of express or implied threats, Intimidation, or physical force which places an individual in fear of immediate harm or physical injury or causes a person to engage in unwelcome sexual activity. Coercion also includes administering a drug, intoxicant, or similar substance with the intent to impair that person's ability to Consent prior to engaging in sexual activity.

Consent*: Consent to engage in sexual activity must exist from beginning to end of each instance of sexual activity. Consent is demonstrated through mutually understandable words and/or actions that clearly indicate a willingness to engage in a specific sexual activity. Silence alone, without actions evidencing permission, does not demonstrate Consent. Consent must be knowing and voluntary. To give Consent, a person must be of legal age. Assent does not constitute Consent if obtained through Coercion or from an individual whom the Alleged Offender [here, Respondent] knows or reasonably should know is Incapacitated. The responsibility of obtaining Consent rests with the person initiating sexual activity. Use of alcohol or drugs does not diminish one's responsibility to obtain Consent. Consent to engage in sexual activity may be withdrawn by any person at any time. Once withdrawal of Consent has been expressed, the sexual activity must cease. Consent is automatically withdrawn by a person who is no longer capable of giving Consent. A current or previous consensual dating or sexual relationship between the Parties does not itself imply Consent or preclude a finding of responsibility.

Note: Consent is a voluntary agreement to engage in sexual activity. Consent to engage in sexual activity with one person does not imply Consent to engage in sexual activity with another. Coercion, force, or threat of either invalidates Consent.

Dating Violence*: is

- a. Dating Violence definition in Clery Act: Violence, including but not limited to sexual or physical abuse or the threat of such abuse, committed by a person who is or has been in a social relationship of a romantic or intimate nature with the Alleged Victim [here, Complainant]. The existence of such a relationship will be determined based on a consideration of the length and type of relationship and the frequency of interaction.
- b. Dating Violence definition in Louisiana law: "Dating Violence" includes but is not limited to physical or sexual abuse and any offense against the person as defined in the Criminal Code of Louisiana, except negligent injury and defamation, committed by one dating partner against the other. La. RS § 46.2151(C). For purposes of this Section, "dating partner" means any person who is or has been in a social relationship of a romantic or intimate nature with the victim and where the existence of such a relationship shall be determined based on a consideration of the following factors:
  - 1) The length of the relationship.
  - 2) The type of relationship.
  - 3) The frequency of interaction between the persons involved in the relationship.

Domestic Abuse*: is

- a. Domestic abuse definition in Louisiana law: Includes but is not limited to physical or sexual abuse and any offense against the person as defined in the Criminal Code of Louisiana, except negligent injury and defamation, committed by one family or household member against another. La. RS 46:2132(3).

Domestic Violence*: is

- a. Domestic Violence definition in Clery Act: Violence, including but not limited to sexual or physical abuse or the threat of such abuse, committed by a current or former spouse or intimate partner or any other person from whom the Alleged Victim [here, Complainant] is protected under federal or Louisiana law. Felony or misdemeanor crime of violence committed:
- By a current or former spouse or intimate partner of the victim;
  - By a person with whom the victim shares a child in common;
  - By a person who is cohabitating with, or has cohabitated with, the victim as a spouse or intimate partner;
  - By a person similarly situated to a spouse of the victim under the Domestic or Family Violence laws of the jurisdiction in which the crime of violence occurred; or
  - By any other person against an adult or youth victim who is protected from that person's acts under the Domestic or Family Violence laws of the jurisdiction in which the crime of violence occurred

Family Violence*: is

Family violence definition in Louisiana law: means any assault, battery, or other physical abuse that occurs between family or household members, who reside together or who formerly resided together. La. RS § 46.2121.1(2).

Hostile Environment Caused by Sexual Harassment: includes any situation in which there is harassing conduct that is sufficiently severe, pervasive, or objectively offensive such that it alters the conditions of employment or limits, interferes with, or denies educational benefits or opportunities. A Hostile Environment can be created by a one-time act that is severe (i.e., a Sexual Assault), or it can be created by repeated acts of less severity (i.e., harassing comments made over a period of time).

Examples of a Hostile Environment Caused by Sexual Harassment include, but are not limited to:

1. Posting pictures of pornography;
2. Consistently telling sexual jokes or stories where it can be overheard by others;
3. Making sexually suggestive remarks about people within ear shot of others;
4. Persisting in unwanted sexual attention; and
5. Using derogatory terms with a sexual connotation.

Incapacitation*/Incapacitated: An individual is considered to be Incapacitated if, by reason of mental or physical condition, the individual is manifestly unable to make a knowing and deliberate choice to engage in sexual activity. Being drunk or intoxicated can lead to Incapacitation; however, someone who is drunk or intoxicated is not necessarily incapacitated, as Incapacitation is a state beyond drunkenness or intoxication. Individuals who are asleep, unresponsive or unconscious are incapacitated. Other indicators that an individual may be Incapacitated include, but are not limited to, inability to communicate coherently, inability to dress/undress without assistance, inability to walk without assistance, slurred speech, loss of coordination, vomiting, or inability to perform other physical or cognitive tasks without assistance.

Initial Assessment: is, after a report or complaint of Prohibited Sexual Conduct, the initial determination made by the Title IX Coordinator of whether the alleged conduct would present a potential violation of the Policy and whether further action is warranted based on the alleged conduct. Interim Protective Measures: are temporary actions taken by the University to ensure equal access to its education programs and activities and foster a more stable and safe environment during the process of reporting, Investigation, and/or Adjudication.

Sample Interim Protective Measures include, but are not limited to:

- Access to counseling services and assistance in setting up initial appointments, both on and off campus
- Imposition of a campus “No-Contact Order”
- Rescheduling of exams and assignments
- Providing alternative course completion options
- Change in class schedule, including the ability to drop a course without penalty or to transfer sections
- Change in work schedule or job assignment
- Change in student’s campus housing
- Assistance from University support staff in completing housing relocation
- Limiting access to certain University facilities or activities pending resolution of the matter
- Voluntary leave of absence
- Options for changing campus transportation arrangements

Intimidation: is to place another person in reasonable fear of harm through the use of threatening words and/or other conduct.

Investigation: is an impartial ascertaining of the facts related to the allegations of Prohibited Sexual Conduct, including interview of the parties and witnesses, as well as gathering available documents and other evidence. The Investigation is conducted by an investigator appointed by the Title IX Coordinator.

Investigative Finding: is a formal judgment rendered on whether a Policy violation has occurred, based on the Investigation.

Prohibited Sexual Conduct: is Sexual Misconduct or Sexual Behavior between Individuals in Certain Roles, which is prohibited by this Policy.

Respondent: is the person alleged to have engaged in Prohibited Sexual Conduct in violation of the Policy?

Responsible Employee*: Each institution must designate and publish the names and contact information for easily accessible institution employees as Responsible Employees who have the authority to take action to redress sexual violence and have been given the duty of reporting incidents of sexual violence or any other misconduct by students to the Title IX Coordinator or other appropriate school designee. However, an institutional decision to make all institution employees mandatory reporters of suspected or known Sexual Harassment or Sexual Misconduct to the Title IX Coordinator or other appropriate school designee does not render all institutional employees to be Responsible Employees. Employees who are authorized or required by law to keep information confidential by virtue of the employee’s professional role such as Counseling Staff or similar shall not be designated as mandated reporters of Sexual Harassment or as Responsible Employees.

Retaliation*/Retaliatory: Acts or attempted acts for the purpose of interfering with any report, Investigation, or proceeding under this Policy, or as retribution or revenge against anyone who has reported Sexual Misconduct or Relationship Violence [or Prohibited Sexual Conduct] or who has participated (or is expected to participate) in any manner in an Investigation, or proceeding under this Policy. Prohibited Retaliatory acts include, but are not limited to, Intimidation, threats, Coercion, or discrimination. Title IX prohibits Retaliation. For purposes of this Policy, an attempt requires a substantial step towards committing a violation.

Sexual Assault* is:

- a. Sexual Assault as defined by the Clery Act: an offense that meets the definition of rape, fondling, incest, or statutory rape as used in the FBI's UCR program.
- b. Sexual Assault as defined by Louisiana State Law:
  - i. Non-Consensual Sexual Intercourse: Having or attempting to have sexual intercourse, cunnilingus, or fellatio without Consent. Sexual intercourse is defined as anal or vaginal penetration by a penis, tongue, finger, or inanimate object.
  - ii. Non-Consensual Sexual Contact: Any intentional sexual touching or attempted sexual touching, without Consent.

Sexual Behavior Between Individuals in Certain Roles: Sexual advances, acts, or contact, whether Consensual or not, involving individuals where, by virtue of roles or position in the University, one individual is in a position of direct academic or supervisory authority with respect to the other are prohibited. These roles include, but are not limited to, the following examples:

- a. A faculty member and any student in his or her class;
- b. A faculty member and any undergraduate major in his or her department;
- c. A faculty member and any graduate student in a departmental program;
- d. A graduate assistant who has teaching or other classroom duties and all students in the class or classes that he or she teaches or assists; a departmental or University administrator and any member of the faculty in his/her chain of command;
- e. A laboratory supervisor and those using or working in his/her lab;
- f. A supervisor of civil service employees and his/her employee; or
- g. A department head and a staff member of his/her chain of command.

Examples of Sexual Exploitation include, but are not limited to, non-consensual observation of individuals who are undressed or engaging in sexual acts, non-consensual audio- or videotaping of sexual activity, prostituting another person, allowing others to observe a personal consensual sexual act without the knowledge or Consent of all involved parties, and knowingly exposing an individual to a sexually transmitted infection without that individual's knowledge.

Sexual Harassment*: Unwelcome conduct of a sexual nature when i) submission to such conduct is made either explicitly or implicitly a term or condition of a person's employment or education; ii) submission to or rejection of such conduct by a person is used as the basis for a decision affecting that person's employment or education; or iii) such conduct has the purpose or effect of unreasonably interfering with a person's employment or education, or creating an intimidating, hostile, or offensive employment or educational environment, and has no legitimate relationship to the subject matter of a course or academic research. Sexual Harassment also includes non-Sexual Harassment or discrimination of a person because of the person's sex and/or gender, including harassment based on the person's nonconformity with gender stereotypes. For purposes of this Policy, the various forms of prohibited Sexual Harassment are referred to as "Sexual Misconduct."

Sexual Misconduct*: is a sexual act or contact of a sexual nature that occurs, regardless of personal relationship, without the Consent of the other person(s), or that occurs when the person(s) is unable to give Consent or whose Consent is coerced or obtained in a fraudulent manner. For the purpose of this Policy, Sexual Misconduct includes, but is not limited to, Sexual Assault, Sexual Abuse, violence of a sexual nature, Sexual Harassment, Non-Consensual Sexual Intercourse, Sexual Exploitation, video voyeurism, contact of a sexual nature with an object, or the obtaining, posting or disclosure of intimate descriptions, photos, or videos without the express Consent [of] the persons depicted therein, as well as Dating Violence, Domestic Violence and Stalking.

Sexual Violence: Sexual Assault, Dating Violence, Domestic Violence, and Stalking

Sexual violence refers to a broad range of physical sexual acts perpetrated without a person's consent, including where a person is incapable of giving consent due to an intellectual or other disability or to the victim's use of drugs or alcohol. A number of different acts fall into the category of sexual violence, including rape, sexual assault, sexual battery, and sexual coercion. ## APPENDIX D: SOCIAL MEDIA POLICY

Purpose

Policy for Establishing/Maintaining Social Media Accounts

Louisiana Christian University social media sites function primarily as branding and engagement tools for visibility and lines of communication between the University, the community, future students, families, alumni, and friends. Social media is a prime venue for the University to share events, educational opportunities and other information that favorably position and positively advance the University.

1. Any social networking site administrator who uses social media as a representative of LCU (including faculty and staff members, all club or organization members, or student athletes, etc.), must agree to abide by the following policies and procedures:
2. Any and all University-affiliated social media usage should promote and advance the institution. No social media site or message may in any way hinder the mission of the University. Primary site administrators must be employees of LCU or designated students who are under direct faculty or staff supervision. The primary site administrator must approve all secondary site administrators.
  - Primary site administrators will be identified for each site and are ultimately responsible for content.
  - Secondary site administrators are those who the primary administrator affords administrative access.
3. Site administrators must ensure that all material keeps within the framework of LCU's mission, vision, and the relative social media policies in the University's Faculty Handbook and Student Handbook. Content will respect LCU, its students, faculty, staff, alumni and the greater community in both the original post and commentary.
4. The primary site administrator is responsible for the site's activity, i.e., regular content updates accuracy and corrections, if needed. The primary administrator will also monitor site activity frequently and respond as needed to maintain decorum.
5. LCU and the particular entity (department, organization, club, etc.) represented must be clearly identified in the username and site title. (For example, Twitter names should begin with LCU where possible, i.e., LCU.)
6. Approved sites must use a generalized LCU email address and not a personal email address as its primary address to both register the site and communicate from the site. E.g., use departmental names such as Music@lcuniversity.edu or Business@lcuniversity.edu. Emails sent to these addresses must automatically be forwarded to the primary and secondary site administrators, as well as to communications@lcuniversity.edu.
7. Each proposed site assets (including name, link aliases, images, and design) should be submitted to the Office of Communications & Integrative Marketing for considerations that include but are not limited to:
  - Usage of the University logo and style.
  - Proper format/uploading to ensure optimal thumbnail version of site.
8. Proposed Facebook pages require the submission to Office of Communications & Integrative Marketing of two images – (A.) a 180x180 pixels profile logo image and (B.) a cover photo less than 100KB (851x315 pixels).
9. Each site administrator must observe applicable copyright laws.
10. All content and assets (including videos, photos, music, etc.) will be available for University marketing or fundraising purposes.
11. Content posted on any social networking site will be current, i.e., updated at least twice monthly. Individual department heads or advisors may require more frequent updates.
12. Before site establishment, written permission is needed from the appropriate department head, organization, advisor or club sponsor, as well as the Office of Communications & Integrative Marketing, which will require full administrative access to each account. This includes username, password, and all other information needed to function as a site administrator with full access to the account.

13. Any activity, procedure, or social media post determined to be in violation of these policies jeopardizes posting privileges and will result in removal, at minimum, of questionable social media posts.
14. Any site that regularly violates these terms and conditions may be suspended or terminated.
15. Sites using LCU's name or logo, or the names or logos of University clubs, organizations or teams, which are established outside of the purview of the Office of Communications & Integrative Marketing may be terminated on grounds of trademark violation with the site host (e.g., Facebook, Twitter, etc.).
16. Disregarding these policies and procedures may result in the loss of posting privileges, or suspension and/or termination of site.
17. Site administrators may not share confidential and/or proprietary information about LCU, including students, faculty or staff or anything that violates FERPA or the University's privacy policy.
18. Under no circumstance is LCU liable for legal damages as the result of an employee's or student designee's actions associated with a social networking site.
19. If contacted by news media, the site administrator must refer the media representative to the Director of University Communication and the Director of Marketing.
20. In addition to abiding by these terms of service and policies and procedures, site administrators must abide by the terms of service of the applicable social media site.
21. All LCU employees who also maintain their own personal social media pages must hold the same respect for the University as part of their personal social media posts. All employee personal media pages that refer to LCU must be respectful of the University, its students, faculty, staff, alumni and the greater community in both the original post and commentary.
22. LCU reserves the right to change these terms of service and policies and procedures at any time.

By my signature below, I verify that I have read, understand, and will abide by the Community Standards, student partner responsibilities, and other requirements contained in Assistance or Service Animals.

I furthermore give permission to Residence Life to disclose to others impacted by the presence of my Assistance/Service Animal (e.g., Associate Vice President of Enrichment and Engagement staff, Housing staff, Facilities Staff, and potential and/or actual roommate(s)/neighbor(s)) that I will be living with an animal as an accommodation. I understand that this information will be shared with the intent of preparing for the presence of the Assistance/Service Animal and/or resolving any potential issues associated with the presence of the animal.

I further recognize that the presence of the Assistance/Service Animal may be notified by others visiting or residing in Campus Housing and agree that staff may acknowledge the presence of the animal and explain that under certain circumstances Assistance/Service Animals are permitted for persons with disabilities.
