Done with Classes? Let's Wrap Up Your Loans!

Time for Your Federal Student Loan Exit Counseling

Before you toss that graduation cap or take a break from school, you need to complete Exit Counseling to understand your rights, responsibilities, and repayment options.

Don't worry — it's quick, helpful, and will totally make Future You grateful.

Step-by-Step: Exit Counseling Made Easy

1 Gather Your Tools

You'll need:

- A device with internet access
 - Your FSA ID
 - Info about your loans (estimated balances, servicers) — you can look this up at studentaid.gov

2 Log Into the Right Place

 Go to: studentaid.gov

3 Sign In

 Click "Log In" (top right)
Use your FSA ID credentials

4 Find Exit Counseling

 Under “Manage Loans”, select:
“Complete Exit Counseling”

5 Select Your School

 Choose Louisiana Christian University
(So we get your completion report—very important!)

6 Learn the Loan Life

 Topics you’ll cover:

- What happens after you leave school
 - Repayment plans (yes, there are options!)
 - Grace periods
 - Loan forgiveness, deferment, and more
 - Avoiding default and keeping your loans on track

7 Interactive & Quick

 You’ll click through content, answer mini quizzes, and finish modules at your own pace.
(Usually takes about 20-30 minutes.)

8 You’re Done When You Submit

 Be sure to click “Submit Counseling” at the end.
We’ll get an automatic notice once you’re done!
