

Wildcat! Time to Seal the Deal

Let's Complete Your Master Promissory Note (MPN)

Before those federal student loans can hit your account, you need to sign your promise to repay them (aka the Master Promissory Note). Don't worry—it's a quick and easy process. We'll walk you through it!

---

10 Step-by-Step: How to Complete Your MPN

1 Get Your Tools

 Make sure you have:

- A device with internet access
- Your FSA ID (used to sign your FAFSA)
- About 10-15 minutes

2 Go to the Source

 Head to: studentaid.gov

---

3 Sign In

 Click "Log In" (top right)
Enter your FSA ID username and password

---

4 Navigate to the MPN

 Under “Complete Aid Process”, click:
“Complete Master Promissory Note”

---

5 Choose Your Loan Type

 Select “Subsidized/Unsubsidized” for undergraduate loans
(Grad students and PLUS loans are different—ask if you’re unsure!)

---

6 Pick Louisiana Christian University

 Be sure to list Louisiana Christian University as your school, school code: 002007
(That way we know you completed it!)

---

7 Fill It Out

 You’ll enter:

- Your personal info (name, SSN, DOB, etc.)
- Two references (just people who know how to reach you—no cosigners needed)
- Review the loan terms and conditions

---

8 E-Sign and Submit

 Use your FSA ID to sign electronically
Click “Submit” at the end—and you’re DONE!

9 Let Us Know You’re Set

 We’ll get an alert automatically, but it doesn’t hurt to double-check.
Give us a call or shoot us an email if you want to confirm it’s complete.

---
